

SELECTION CRITERIA FOR

Undergraduate Entry to Medicine

FOR EU APPLICANTS 2014

Undergraduate Entry to Medicine 2014

This brochure provides details of the selection criteria for EU applicants to medicine in NUI Galway, RCSI, TCD, UCC and UCD.

In 2014, undergraduate entry to medicine for school leavers will be based on both:

- achieving a minimum of 480 points and meeting the minimum entry requirements for the programme in the same sitting of the Irish Leaving Certificate Examination (or equivalent^{*})[^]

and

- completing the required admissions test (HPAT-Ireland) in 2014^{^^}

(Notes: [^] Pre 2014 Leaving Certificate results may be presented

^{^^} 2013 HPAT-Ireland results will not be considered. Results are now only valid for one year.)

Minimum Entry Requirements

School Leavers:

In order for school leavers to be eligible to compete for entry to undergraduate medicine, they must both (a) achieve a minimum of 480 points and (b) meet the minimum entry requirements[#] for each Medical School for which they have applied and these must both be achieved in the same sitting of the Irish Leaving Certificate Examination, or equivalent^{*} (see table 1 for details of requirements for each medical programme).

Table 1: Summary of minimum entry requirements for EU admissions for each Medical School [#]

In addition all students will be required to satisfy the Garda Vetting and Medical Clearance requirements as outlined in each University/RCSI Prospectus. [#]

^{*} For EU students presenting qualifications other than the Irish Leaving Certificate equivalent qualifications are required. For details please consult the website of the relevant University/RCSI.

[#] Students are advised to check the website of the relevant University/RCSI for full details of all entry requirements.

Mature Applicants (23 years or over by 1 January of 2014):

For those applying for a place on grounds of mature years, the minimum educational requirements and places available for mature students are available from each University/RCSI. In all cases the medical admissions test, HPAT-Ireland, is required. As HPAT-Ireland results form part of the selection procedure for mature applicants, results will be sent to the universities for short-listing purposes prior to the official release of results.

The Admissions Test: HPAT-Ireland

The admissions test is called HPAT-Ireland (Health Professions Admission Test-Ireland). This test is independently administered by ACER (Australian Council for Educational Research).

The HPAT-Ireland test measures a candidate's logical reasoning and problem solving skills as well as non-verbal reasoning and the ability to understand the thoughts, behaviour and/or intentions of people. It does not test academic knowledge and candidates do not require special understanding of any academic discipline. However, some familiarity with the question types typically presented in HPAT-Ireland would be an advantage and therefore a practice booklet with worked answers is supplied to all candidates. The test results will complement the Leaving Certificate Examination assessment for selecting applicants for admission to an undergraduate Medical School programme.

HPAT-Ireland

Format of test:

The HPAT-Ireland test is a 2½ hour paper-based test consisting of three modules or sections:

- (i) Logical Reasoning and Problem Solving
- (ii) Interpersonal Understanding
- (iii) Non-Verbal Reasoning

All questions are in multiple choice format with 4 or 5 possible responses, from which the candidate is asked to choose the most appropriate response. There is only one correct response. Further details regarding the test, including the approximate number of questions in each section, can be found at www.hpat-ireland.acer.edu.au. Reasonable accommodations will be made for students with a physical and/or specific learning disability.

Scoring of test:

The maximum score a candidate can achieve is 300. The weighting of the three sections will be Section 1 (40%); Section 2 (40%); Section 3 (20%). In addition to their overall HPAT score HPAT-Ireland candidates will also receive an overall percentile rank to give them an indication of how well they performed against other HPAT-Ireland candidates.

Application procedure and cost:

In addition to their application to the CAO (www.cao.ie) students must also apply directly to ACER to complete the HPAT-Ireland test. Applicants for the test will apply on-line to ACER at www.hpat-ireland.acer.edu.au (see Table 2 for details). The cost of applying to the HPAT-Ireland test in 2014 will be €115.00 per candidate. This fee will cover on-line registration for the test, a practice booklet with worked answers, materials required for the paper test, provision of test results to the candidate and the transfer of results to the CAO. Only bona-fide applicants may apply to sit the test i.e. current or past school leavers. A more detailed definition of a bona-fide candidate is available on the HPAT-Ireland website.

Test date:

The only sitting of the HPAT-Ireland test in 2014 will take place on 1st March, 2014. There will be no alternative test date for HPAT-Ireland. HPAT-Ireland results are only valid for one year.

Test centres:

Test centres will be located in Cork, Dublin, Galway, Sligo and Waterford. Every effort will be made to accommodate applicants in their preferred test centre. However, as capacity in some test centres may be limited, places in those venues will be allocated on a first-come basis. Early application for the test is advised.

Allocation of places based on the combination of Leaving Certificate Examination results and the HPAT-Ireland score

For school-leaving applicants who meet the minimum subject entry requirements and the 480 points criterion in the same sitting of the Leaving Certificate examination, allocation of places for medicine will be determined on the basis of a combination of that Leaving Certificate Examination (LCE) score and the HPAT-Ireland score. The sole competitive selection criterion for entry to medicine will be on the basis of the weighted combination of the LCE and HPAT-Ireland scores. The weighting will be a 2:1 ratio where the LCE = 2 and HPAT-Ireland =1 up to 550 points and moderated thereafter. Before the scores are combined, Leaving Certificate Examination scores above 550 points will be adjusted, to a maximum score of 565 points (see table 3 below). This is to strike an appropriate balance between the perceived pressures on students to achieve maximum grades in the Leaving Certificate Examination while at the same time recognising excellence when it has been achieved.

Table 3: Adjusted Leaving Certificate points from 550 points

Bonus points for mathematics:

- All students presenting HD3 or above in HL mathematics will have 25 points added to their score for mathematics
- The six highest subject points scores will then be counted to achieve a cumulative points score, as is normal practice.

The bonus points will only be relevant in cases where the subject HL mathematics (including bonus points) is scored as one of the candidate's six best subjects for points purposes. Consequently if HL mathematics is not among these six subjects, the bonus points will not be included in the total points score.

The maximum possible adjusted points scores for applicants to medicine is 565. (For all scores over 550, each 5 point band equals one extra point). The baseline score of 480 applies but can include the bonus points if HL mathematics is among the best six subjects.

For CAO applicants to medicine the maximum achievable score will be 865:

565 as the maximum score based on the Leaving Certificate Examination (after adjustment)

and

300 as the maximum score based on the HPAT-Ireland test.

For example:

- If you achieve 600 points in the LCE this will become 560 adjusted LCE points and if you achieve a score of 160 in the HPAT-Ireland test, your overall score will be 720
- Similarly if you achieve 540 points in the LCE, and then get a HPAT-Ireland score of 180, your overall score will be 720
- Or if you achieve 480 points in the LCE and then 240 in HPAT-Ireland, your overall score will be 720.

Table 4 overleaf shows samples of how the LCE and HPAT-Ireland scores will be combined and recorded as a special CAO points score in the case of medicine programmes.

The combined score will then be used to offer a place to an applicant for the highest of their programme choices to which they are entitled (if any), in line with standard CAO procedures www.cao.ie

As for all CAO offers, where there is a tie on points for the last remaining places, random selection will apply.

Tips from ACER for the Day of the Test

- 1. Admissions Ticket: These are emailed to all candidates approximately two weeks prior to the test. Details of your Test Centre are given on this ticket. Candidates should note that there may be more than one examination room at the venue. It is important to check the ticket carefully so that you know exactly where you should be. No latecomers will be admitted once the test has started.
- 2. Arrival at the Test Centre: Reporting time is indicated on the Admission Ticket and the test will commence as soon as the check-in process is complete. Please ensure that you give yourself plenty of time to check in and find your desk before the test begins. Keep in mind that at large Test Centres it may take some time before all IDs and Admission Tickets are checked and candidates are seated.
- 3. Identification: On the day of the test you will be required to present an original photo-bearing identification document (in which the photograph is recognisable as a likeness of you as you are on the day). Candidates should note that the name on the identification document must match the name on your CAO and HPAT applications. The only acceptable identification documents are:
 - a. a valid passport, or
 - b. a current driver's licence (if this includes an embedded photograph), or
 - c. a certified letter of identification. This letter must be on official institution (school or workplace) letterhead and contain your name, date of birth, a passport photo glued to the letter with the institution stamp overlapping and the signature, printed name and title of the official verifying the identification as well as your signature. Examples of the appropriate ID can be found on the HPAT-Ireland website.

If you do not present one of the above approved identification documents, in addition to your Admission Ticket, you will not be able to sit HPAT-Ireland and will be turned away from the Test Centre.
- 4. Duration of the test: The duration of the test is 2.5 hours. However candidates should note when making transport arrangements that they will be in the Test Centre until approximately 1.30pm. Candidates may not leave the Test Centre before the test has finished.
- 5. Dress comfortably: Some Test Centres are warmer or cooler on weekends than during the week. Consider dressing in layers, so you will be comfortable irrespective of the room conditions.
- 6. Food: Do not forget to eat before the test. As you will be in the Test Centre for a number of hours it is important that you have eaten something before going into the test centre as no food is permitted in the test room (unless permission has been granted by the HPAT-Ireland Office prior to the test e.g. in the case of diabetes, etc.). All students are permitted to take bottled water into the test room.
