Saturday 23rd March 2013
12.00 noon - 1.00pm

Instructions to Candidates:

Write an essay on the following topic:

Secondary school music is sometimes perceived as suitable only for those students who have a particular talent for music or who have already achieved through music lessons outside of the school, a certain vocal or instrumental proficiency. Discuss this perception, drawing on your own experience of secondary school music.

The purpose of this exercise is to assess your writing skills. You should use a formal essay-writing style.

Your essay should be approximately three one-sided pages in length.
