

Apply Now to Trinity College Dublin for 2012

Trinity College Dublin is recognised internationally as Ireland's number one university and as one of the top 100 universities in the QS world university rankings. Trinity offers a wide range of courses in Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences, Engineering, Mathematics, Science and Health Sciences, all with excellent academic reputations.

Located in the heart of Dublin, and in close proximity to the train and bus stations serving Belfast, TCD students can avail of the many attractions and facilities that Dublin has to offer. The campus's state-of-the-art facilities include a modern Sports Centre, a brand new Biomedical Sciences Institute, the Science Gallery – which is the first of its kind in the world, and the Trinity College Library, the largest research library in Ireland.

There are some 50 sports clubs and almost 100 student societies to participate in, ensuring a fun and varied social life for the student body, which represents 122 nationalities and has the highest number of Northern Irish students of any university in the Republic of Ireland.

How to Apply

- You may apply for entry to TCD by applying to www.cao.ie (the Irish equivalent of UCAS) by 1 May 2012
- Read full details at: www.tcd.ie/Admissions/undergraduate/apply/eu

Note: The closing date for applications for entry to Drama studies, Drama and theatre studies, Medicine, Music, and Music Education closed on 1 February 2012.

Admission Requirements

- Present six subjects (including English, Mathematics, and a language other than English) at grade C or above on GCSE or AS level papers. Two of these subjects must be at grade C or above on A-Level papers.
- See course specific requirements at: www.tcd.ie/courses
- Competitive entry levels: An applicant's points score will be calculated on the basis of either of the following:
 - their best 4 A-level subjects from one academic year, or
 - their best 3 A-level subjects from one academic year plus one AS level subject in a different subject from the same or the preceding academic year only.
- See full admission requirements and the scoring scheme at: www.tcd.ie/Admissions/undergraduate/requirements/matriculation/gcse/
- Competitive entry levels for 2011 may be downloaded from: www.tcd.ie/Admissions/undergraduate (note that a small number of high demand courses may have separate entry levels for A-level applicants).

Fees

- EU nationals who have not previously attended a 3rd level institution may qualify for the Free Fees scheme, and may therefore not have to pay tuition fees. A student Contribution of €2,250 is payable per year – although this may be paid by your local Education and Library Board.
- See www.tcd.ie/Admissions/undergraduate/fees for full details regarding fees.
