Reid entrance exhibition

In 1888, the sum of £6,200 was received under the will and testament of the late Richard Touhill Reid to found additional sizarships. The awards, which do not exceed five in number, are open only to students of limited means who are not eligible for the higher education grant and who are natives of county Kerry. They are granted to qualified candidates on the basis of their public examination results and are tenable for two years.

Students not eligible are those who:

- (a) are above the standing of Junior Freshman (first year)
OR
- (b) are graduates of any chartered university
OR
- (c) have completed their nineteenth year before 1 May of the year in which they compete.

Exhibitioners have their Commons (evening meal) free, are supplied with a laptop and receive a salary of €6,000 per annum. During the Senior Freshman (second) year, exhibitioners normally compete for Foundation scholarships. Those who fail to obtain such scholarships, but are deemed to have shown sufficient merit, may have their exhibitions extended for two further years.

Application forms may be downloaded from www.tcd.ie/Admissions/undergraduate/apply/forms and should be addressed to the Admissions Office to arrive not later than 31 May of the proposed year of entry.

Taylor exhibition

This exhibition was founded in 1978 by a gift from Mrs. Eileen Taylor to provide an Entrance Exhibition to be awarded each year for a two-year period at the discretion of the Head of Music in consultation with the Department of Music Committee.

Choral scholarships – Trinity College Chapel Choir

Eight choral scholarships valued at €1,300 are available for all voices for the year 2012/13.

The choral scholars form the core and leadership of the Chapel Choir: a mixed-voice choir of about twenty-five singers which performs in a liturgical context. The choir sings at two regular services during each week of lecture term and various special College and University services. However, the choir is not itself a religious organisation: applicants of any faith, denomination or none are welcome. Those considering applying for a choral scholarship should note that some previous choral experience is an advantage and the ability to read music is essential. International students find that membership of the Chapel Choir opens up an element of University life not available to them in their home universities.

Application is made in person at the Chapel Choir desk in Front Square during Orientation Week; an appointment for an audition before the selection committee is then made. All candidates are informed of the decision of the committee by the end of the first week of teaching term. There is no pre-application process.
