MODULE DESCRIPTIONS

Semester A:

Eras and Classical Authors in the History of Christian Thinking BCRE07  (HE1016)

ECTS: 5
Contact hours: 22 hours
Lecturer: Prof Cathriona Russell (russellc@tcd.ie/ext. 3493)

Module Description: This module examines discourse about God in Eastern and Western European Christianity from the Patristic to the Modern eras. It examines key events and themes in theological history. These include: the role and achievements in Christology of the Ecumenical Councils in the Patristic period with a focus on Nicaea (325); the Great Schism East and West in relation to theologies of the Holy Spirit; the role of the Monasteries with a focus on the Rule of St Benedict; the Medieval synthesis of Aristotelian philosophy and Christian theology (Aquinas); the Reformation (Luther) and Counterreformation (Council of Trent); theology in the periods of Enlightenment and Romanticism (Schleiermacher); and in the modern and contemporary eras including the theological reception of humanist atheism (Feuerbach) and nihilism (Nietzsche).

Learning Outcomes: On successful completion of this course, students will be able to

- appreciate the historical development of theological discourse
- explain some major theological achievements in each epoch
- discuss the challenges for theology in the modern period
- be familiar with strategies of academic reading, different types of literature and sources, and skills in academic writing
- present and investigate these concepts and interpretations in class and in a written assignment.
