Laidlaw Undergraduate Research and Leadership Programme

Data Protection Statement

In applying to the Laidlaw Undergraduate Research and Leadership Programme, your data will be processed in line with the outlined administrative needs, and in accordance with the Trinity Data Protection Policy.

Data Protection

The personal information provided by you in your application will be used to process and administrate your application to the Laidlaw Undergraduate Research and Leadership Programme as delivered by the Laidlaw organisation, and Trinity College Dublin’s Careers Advisory Service.

The data will be held securely by the Trinity Careers Advisory Service and will be managed in accordance with the provisions of the Data Protection Act, and any future data protection legislation. Completed forms submitted by successful applicants may be retained for up to ten years after the date of the successful application.

The personal data submitted by you in this form will be held and processed by Trinity College Dublin for the purposes specified above.

In submitting this application, I acknowledge that:

1. I have read and understood the eligibility criteria
2. I must satisfy these criteria in order to qualify for consideration by the University for award of this scholarship;
3. As of this date, the information provided is, to the best of my knowledge, both accurate and complete;
4. I understand that should the information provided:
   i) indicate that I am ineligible to be considered for award of this Scholarship;
ii) be incomplete to the extent that it is inadequate to prove eligibility to be considered for award of this Scholarship; or

iii) on further investigation by the University, proves to be inaccurate or misleading;

the University reserves the right to reject my application without further consideration/explanation.

5. I understand that the University has sole discretion in awarding this scholarship and that the University reserves the right not to award this scholarship or to withdraw this scholarship for any reason at any time prior to award of this scholarship; or following award, for any non-compliance by the successful applicant, within the terms of the award.