Church of Ireland Chaplaincy
Hilary Term 2010

A Note from the Chaplain

Welcome to College Chapel. My name is Darren McCallig, and I am the Church of Ireland Chaplain (Anglican/Episcopal) here in TCD. On this Term Card you will find details of our weekly services. Each weekday in term begins with Morning Prayer in Chapel at 9.15am.

On Wednesdays there is a short service of Holy Communion from 1.05pm to 1.30pm. This service includes a short meditation. The Eucharist is also celebrated on Sundays and Feast Days. The Chapel Choir sings the beautiful office of Evensong every Thursday at 5.15pm and the Eucharist on Sunday mornings at 10.45am.

“Future Tense?” is the theme of our Lenten series this year. Over the course of the six Sundays in Lent we will hear six different perspectives on the challenges facing the church of the future. Speakers include: Dr. Martin Mansergh, TD (Minister of State at the Department of Finance); Nóirín Ní Riain (Irish Spiritual Singer, Theologian & Musicologist) and Peter Owen Jones (Anglican Priest, TV Presenter & Author). Full details on the back of this Term Card.

Our book group continues to meet this term, with Lucy Winkett’s Our Sound is our Wound providing the focus for our discussions. New members receive a free copy of the book. Full details on our website.

But the Chaplaincy is much more than just the Chapel! All the Chaplains are here to provide pastoral care and support for all members of the university community. From whatever background you come, from any faith, or from none, please be assured of a good cup of coffee, a warm welcome and a listening ear in the Chaplaincy building (House 27 – near the tennis courts). Free, fresh soup is available every Tuesday lunch time during term. I am also available to help prepare members of College for Baptism or Confirmation and to help make the necessary arrangements for those considering Marriage.
