

A Quiet Day

with Bishop William Willimon

“Leading the Church Today”

Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin

Wednesday 16 February

10.00am - 3.30pm

William H. Willimon is the Presiding Bishop of the Birmingham Area of the North Alabama Conference of the United Methodist Church and former Dean of the Chapel at Duke University.

His books - which include Pastor: The Theology and Practice of Ordained Ministry and Calling and Character: Virtues of the Ordained Life - have sold over one million copies. He is widely recognised as one of America's best preachers.

This Quiet Day - organised by Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin and the Church of Ireland Chaplaincy at Trinity College Dublin - will offer participants an opportunity to reflect on their role as leaders in the Name of Jesus Christ.

The schedule for the day is:

10.00am	Session I
10.45am	Quiet Time for Reflection
11.15am	Tea/Coffee
11.30am	Session II
12.15pm	Quiet time for Reflection
1.00pm	Lunch
1.45pm	Session III
2.30pm	Quiet Time for Reflection
3.00pm	Final Session

To register to attend please send your name, address and contact details, together with a cheque for €10 made payable to "Chapel of Trinity College" to:

The Revd Darren McCallig,
Dean of Residence and Chaplain,
The Chaplaincy, House 27,
Trinity College, Dublin 2.

Please note:

- There is no parking available at Christ Church Cathedral. Lunch is not included in the fee.
- Bishop Willimon will also deliver the first annual TCD Ecumenical Chaplaincy lecture in the JM Synge Theatre, TCD on Tuesday 15 February at 7.00pm.