

CURRICULUM VITAE

PETER DESMOND MCGOLDRICK

Central Bank & Financial Services Authority of Ireland
Dublin 2
Republic of Ireland

E-mail: mcgoldep@tcd.ie
peter.mcgoldrick@centralbank.ie

Occupation

Since October 2005
Economist at the Central Bank & Financial Services Authority of Ireland (Monetary Policy and Financial Stability);
Part-time lecturer at Department of Economics TCD (JS [3rd year] Investment Analysis).

Education

September 2000 – October 2004

Trinity College Dublin

- Ph.D. in Economics
Thesis topic:
Chinese State Owned Enterprises
[Supervisor: Dr. P.P. Walsh]

September 2002 – June 2003

- Postgraduate Diploma in Statistics

September 2001- June 2002

University College Dublin

- Higher Diploma in Computer Science
(Programming Option)

October 2000 – September 2001

Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Belgium

- Master of Science (M.Sc.) in Economics;
- Specialisation: International Economics;

October 1996 – June 2000

Trinity College Dublin

- Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in Economics and Social Studies, Single Honours Economics;

October 1987 – May 1996

Hermann-Josef Kolleg, Steinfeld, Germany

Secondary School where I was awarded the German Abitur; Main Subjects: History, English, Mathematics, German, and Biology.

Work Experience

Sep. 2004 – Aug. 2005

Full-time lecturer at the Department of Economics, University College Dublin

Oct. 2002 – Sept. 2004

Teaching Assistant for Junior Sophister Investment Analysis, Trinity College Dublin;

Oct. 2001 – Sept. 2003 Teaching Assistant for Junior Freshman Mathematics and Statistics for Business and Economics, TCD;
Oct. 2002 – Sept. 2003 Research Assistant for Professor Kevin O'Rourke, TCD;
October 2000 – July 2001 Research Assistant at the Leuven Institute for Central and Eastern European Studies;

Awards

- 2003/4 IRCHSS: Government of Ireland Scholar;
- 2002/3 Centre for Economic Globalisation Fellowship;
- 2001-3 Trinity Postgraduate Award;
- 2000/1 Marie Curie Scholar.

Presentations/Visiting Positions:

January 2004 “Reform and Productivity Dynamics in Chinese SOE”,
University College Dublin: Dublin Economic Workshop;
June 2003 Visiting Researcher at Harvard University, Cambridge, MA
March 2002 “Evaluating Wage Bonuses in Chinese SOEs”,
Katholieke Universiteit Leuven: LICOS Transition Seminar.

Additional Qualifications / Skills

Languages: Native Speaker of both German and English;
Medium level of French and Spanish, read, written, and spoken;
Dutch, Flemish, read;
Abitur linked certificate for proficiency in Latin.

Computing: Microsoft Office applications (e.g. Access, Word, Power Point, Excel)
Statistical Programs (e.g. Stata, Microfit, and EViews);
Computer Programming (e.g. C++, Java, HTML, JavaScript, SQL);

Publication

‘Reform and Productivity Dynamics in Chinese State-Owned Enterprises’, with P.P. Walsh, IZA Discussion Papers 1201, 2004