Dr. Aidan Seery will give a paper entitled ‘Short years and little hours’ at the British Sociological Association Auto|biography Study Group conference at the British Library on Friday December 14\textsuperscript{th}.

A collaborative project entitled ‘A national study of an online educational discussion forum dedicated to post-graduate learning in intensive care medicine’ to be carried out by Dr. Enda O’Connor of the Department of Intensive Care Medicine, St. James’ Hospital and Dr. Aidan Seery of the School of Education has been awarded €5,000 in funding by the Intensive Care Society of Ireland. The study will begin in February and run until November 2013.