Second Annual Conference of The Welsh Branch of The British Psychological Society

Saturday 30th November 2013 at Glyndwr University, Wrexham

The Welsh Branch of The British Psychological Society will be holding its second Annual Conference on Saturday 30th November 2013 at Glyndwr University, Wrexham. The event will run between 10.30 am and 5.30 pm.

Keynotes:

Dr Phil Banyard (Nottingham Trent University) will be speaking on the topic of “Psychology, Education and Technology”.

Dr Conor Mc Guckin (Trinity College Dublin) will be speaking on the topic of “Cyberbullying among children”.

Details of the venue can be found at: http://www.glyndwr.ac.uk/en/OurCampusesandFacilities/CatrinFinchCentre/

Call for papers:

Papers may be on any aspect of psychology (from theoretical to empirical, practice-based to original research). Non-members are welcome to submit papers for presentation at the conference. The usual time allocated for each paper, including discussion, will be 20 minutes (up to 90 minutes for workshops or symposia). Speakers should aim to make papers readily understandable to a non-specialist audience and they should not simply read aloud an article intended for publication.

The deadline for the receipt of all submissions is Friday 11th October 2013. Submissions received after this date will be considered only in exceptional circumstances. Submitters will be notified of the outcome of the review process by 15th October 2013. Abstracts of all accepted submissions other than workshops will be included in the Conference Proceedings of the BPS.

All submissions must be submitted electronically using the attached submission form. They should be emailed, as attachments, to the Chair of the Programme Committee, Prof. Christopher Alan Lewis at psychology@glyndwr.ac.uk

Cost (including VAT):

Students = £44
BPS Members = £55
Non Members = £72
