NFB Resolutions 1990 - 2014

NFB Congress resolutions - increase in proportion related to technology 1990-2014
NFB Congress resolutions - increase in proportion related to technology 1990-2012

Web Accessibility Initiative (WAI)

- The power of the Web is in its universality. Access by everyone regardless of disability is an essential aspect.
  - Tim Berners-Lee, W3C Director and inventor of the World Wide Web

News

- Call for Review for 30 June 2005 Web Content Accessibility Guidelines Working Draft
- Web Accessibility Engineer position open
- Web Content Accessibility Guidelines Working Group Meeting, 13-16 June 2005, Brussels, Belgium
- Authoring Tool Accessibility Guidelines 2.0, 22 November 2004 Last Call Draft, ATAG 2.0 Call for Review
- Summary and Slides from Teleconference on Making Visualizations of Complex Information Accessible, 28 June 2004
- WAI Responds to Web Access Report from UK Disability Rights Commission, 14 April 2004
- Upcoming meetings
- Press releases

Evaluation and repair
- Conformance logos
- Translations
- Alternative browsers
- Event links
NFB Resolutions 2014

19 of 21 (90%) resolutions concern technologies

Predominant theme is accessibility of mainstream technologies