Irish visionaries in science and mathematics

HMI Lunchtime Lectures: Irish Visionaries in Science and Mathematics

A series of talks celebrating Irish science and Irish scientists.

1-2pm Wednesday January 12/19/26 and February 2/9/16/23
Emmet Lecture Theatre, Arts Building TCD.

- 12 January: David Spearman (TCD)

  William Rowan Hamilton.

- 19 January: Eric Finch (Physics, TCD)

  ETS Walton: Atom splitter and man of peace.

- 26 January: Denis Weaire (Physics, TCD)

  N (where 1< N<7) natural philosophers.

- 2 February: Sara McMurry (Physics, TCD)

  From philosophy to physics: John Bell and his contribution to quantum theory.

- 9 February: Petros Florides (Maths, TCD)

  JL Synge, a life at work on general relativity.

- 16 February: Mike Jones (Botany, TCD)

  The botanist Henry Horatio Dixon and the ascent of sap.

- 23 February: Colm Ó Dúnlaing (Maths, TCD)

  George Boole and the algebra of logic.

The Emmet Lecture Theatre is on the main floor of the Arts building by Nassau Street.
Contact Siddhartha Sen (email: sen@maths.tcd.ie, ph: +353-1-608 1211) for more details.
See: http://www.hamilton.tcd.ie/events/Visionaries2005/