

INTERNSHIP IN CONSERVATION
TRINITY COLLEGE LIBRARY
2011/2012

The Heritage Council of Ireland and Trinity College Library

The Heritage Council and Trinity College Library are pleased to offer a nine-month internship in book and manuscript conservation. The internship will be based at Trinity College Library and will begin in November 2011.

The successful candidate will work under the supervision of the Library's Keeper of Preservation & Conservation and will be involved in every aspect of work carried out in the Conservation Laboratory. The internship will be based around the conservation of books and manuscripts from the Library's special collections, as well as exhibitions preparation, and housing projects. The intern will be encouraged to carry out a short research project on an aspect of the collection, the subject of which will be determined once the internship has begun.

Candidates should be recent graduates of a recognised book or paper conservation training program (or have equivalent experience). The applicant should be able to work with a degree of independence.

Stipend: €20,000 (subject to normal PRSI and PAYE deductions)

The deadline for applications is Friday 9th September 2011 and interviews will be held in early October. Candidates should send a letter of interest, current curriculum vitae and the contact details of two referees to:
