IMPORTANT:

1. The aim of the conversion table is to ensure that all results are treated equally by all disciplines.
2. If for exceptional reasons a discipline deviates from the table, they must inform the International Admissions and Study Abroad Office in writing, stating the reasons for the deviation. Approved deviations include the School of Business (for Business Schools in France only) and the School of Law which uses more refined university by university grades conversion tables in line with the above grade categories.
3. Official transcripts issued by the host institution supersede any unofficial grades supplied by students.

FOOTNOTES:

* Charles University in Prague might provide more detailed results on request. Students should take a copy of the Trinity grading scheme with them and present it to individual lecturers on arrival as agreed with the International Office in Prague.

 Where a mark spans two Trinity grades the higher grade may be awarded where supporting documentation is received.

Important:

1. Where there is a range of results, the top of the range should be used unless evidence is provided to suggest otherwise.
2. It may be necessary to revise this table annually as new exchanges and information and feedback is received.

ECTS equivalents:

Please see the ECTS Equivalents Credit Table for UK & Non-European Study Abroad for detailed information of ECTS equivalents for each of the above countries.

Footnotes:

- a. Some Australian universities consider 85 – 100 as a First and 75 – 84 as an Upper Second.
- b. The University of Tokyo does not use a D grade. Therefore a C grade covers the TCD range from 40-59.
