

Czech - Czech for Beginners

This course gives students a basic knowledge of Czech language, culture and contemporary Czech society. By the end of the year students are expected to have a reasonably good level of spoken Czech in a number of real-life situations and to be able to read and write simple texts.

The class consists of two one and a half hour sessions per week of grammar, listening and reading comprehension and conversation. The total number of contact hours is sixty-three (21 weeks). At the end of the course students have an option of final written and oral assessment, which may be one of the entrance requirements in order to proceed to the next level.

This course will normally run if there is a minimum of twelve students enrolled for the year.

How to apply
