

Polish - Polish for Beginners

This course gives students a basic knowledge of Polish language, culture and contemporary Polish society. By the end of the year students are expected to have a reasonably good level of spoken Polish in a number of real-life situations and to be able to read and write simple texts.

The class consists of two one and a half hour sessions per week of grammar, reading and listening comprehension and conversation. The total number of contact hours is sixty-three (21 weeks). At the end of the course students have an option of final written and oral assessment, which may be one of the entrance requirements in order to proceed to the next level, Lower Intermediate Polish.

This course will normally run if there is a minimum of twelve students enrolled for the year. Groups will normally be closed when twenty students have enrolled.

How to apply

Application forms are available from the Department of Russian and Slavonic Studies either in hard copy or electronic form (<http://www.tcd.ie/Russian/evening-courses>). The completed application form accompanied by payment in the form of a personal cheque, postal money order or bank draft, payable to Trinity College no. 1 account, should be returned by 23 September 2011.
