The Swing of the Sixties: Trinity’s College Gallery
Exhibition Learning Programme
Municipal Gallery, dlr LexIcon

TALKS

Ballagh Talks Pop at Trinity
Wednesday 30 November
6.30–8pm, no booking required
Syng Theatre, The Arts Building,
Trinity College Dublin.

Irish artist, Robert Ballagh, will discuss how 1960s Pop Culture influenced his career and his transition from guitarist to visual artist. Dr. Brenda Moore McCann, Art Historian, will host the event on behalf of The Art Collections at Trinity College Dublin.

The Swinging Sixties: Pop Culture
Thursday December 1, 6.30–8pm
Project Room.
Simon O’Connor, curator at the Little Museum, will chair presentations and a public discussion with Dr. Daniel Geary, and Dr. Carole Holohon of Trinity College looking at the rising influence of popular culture on American and Irish society in the 1960s.

TOURS

Talk and Tour
Thursday December 8
6.30–7.30pm, Gallery
Join curator Richard Wood for this fascinating tour and talk of The Swing of the Sixties. Not to be missed!

Apple: Richard Wood: courtesy of Trinity College Dublin

Azure Tours
Tuesday Dec 6, 11.30am–1pm
Tuesday Dec 13, 2.30–4pm, Gallery

Would you like to try something different with your loved one with dementia? Terry O’Farrell and Julie Merriman, both trained to support people with dementia, will explore and discuss a selection of artworks in these tours. The person with dementia must be accompanied by a family member or carer.

For more information please phone (01) 236 2759 or email artbookings@dlrcoco.ie

Music from the Sixties
Saturday 7 January, 12.30pm
No booking required
Level 3, in front of the Gallery

Join Newpark Senior Orchestra as they play some music from the era that inspired The Swing of the Sixties!

WORKSHOPS FOR ADULTS

The Swing of the Sixties
Screen Printing Workshop
Wednesday 30 November, 6–8pm
Project Room. Cost: €8

This is an introductory screen print workshop designed specifically for beginners. This workshop will introduce you to the popular technique of screen printing. Create colour prints, reminiscent of the Pop Art works by artists such as Andy Warhol and Roy Lichtenstein.

Create a Textile Artwork with Bernie Leahy
Tuesday 6 December, 6.15–8.15
Project Room. Cost: €8

Create a textile and collage artwork inspired by the exhibition. Using rich textures with contrasting colours and fabric text complete your own personal textile banner to take home and frame. Learn to piece and layer together collected fabrics to create amazing colour and texture combinations.

WORKSHOPS FOR CHILDREN

Print a Swinging Sixties Drawstring Rucksack with Maeve Hunter
7–9 years
Saturday 10 December, 2–3pm
Project Room

Make your own hand printed drawstring bag, using the theme of the swinging sixties. Stencil prints based on the distinctive designs of the time.

Pop Comic Capers
10–12 years
Wednesday January 4, 2.15–4pm
Project Room

Join popular author and illustrator Alan Nolan as he talks about comics in sixties pop art, and how comics have influenced his own work. Learn how to draw famous and not-so-famous comic characters and create your own Lichtenstein-style masterpiece!

BOOKING:
Events are free unless otherwise stated. For activities that require booking go to www.eventbrite.com and search for Swing of the Sixties.