

TRINITY AND ITS NEIGHBOURS

Science, Health and Society in Modern Ireland

2nd Series of Lectures

St Andrew's Church, Westland Row At 7pm

In collaboration with Trinity College and St. Andrew's Resource Centre

11th April: Land of Milk and Honey – Immunity and Fertility in Modern Secular Ireland

Prof. Cliona O Farrelly, Prof. of Comparative Immunology

Department of Biochemistry, TCD

18th April: Niall of the Nine Hostages and some other tales from Ireland's genetic history

Prof. Dan Bradley, Prof. of Genetics, Department of Genetics, TCD

25th April: The Invisible Landscape of the City – the life of our mobile phones

Prof. Linda Doyle, Director of CTVR/telecommunications research centre, TCD

2nd May: The 21st. Century Brain: What do we know and what is left to discover?

Prof. Orla Hardiman, Professor of Clinical Medicine, School of Medicine, TCD

9th May: Age messes up our brains. Why?

Prof. Marina Lynch, Professor of Physiology, Department of Physiology, TCD

16th May: Consumption – Dublin's enduring plague

Prof. Joe Keane, Professor in Respiratory Medicine, School of Medicine, TCD

ALL WELCOME

ENTRY IS FREE

For more information: Contact Betty Ashe : betty.ashe.ices@gmail.com