Robin Frame Hon. MRIA is Professor Emeritus of the University of Durham and a graduate of Trinity College Dublin. Professor Frame is widely credited with having transformed our understanding of Ireland in the Middle Ages (c.1100–1500), and his research on the nations and identities of the medieval British Isles is internationally acclaimed. His publications include English lordship in Ireland, 1318–1361 (1982), The political development of the British Isles (1990), and Ireland and Britain, 1170–1450 (1998). His popular textbook Colonial Ireland, 1169–1369, first published in 1981, has now been republished by Four Courts Press.
