You are cordially invited to attend a celebration of Africa Day

“Investing in Africa: Society, Agriculture and Enterprise”

Wednesday 25th May • 2.30pm – 4.30pm

This conference will be addressed by distinguished speakers:

Dr. Marcela Villarreal
Food and Agriculture Organization

Kalongo Chitengi
Self Help Africa, Zambia

Prof. Margaret Kigozi
Uganda Investment Authority

Dr. Eoin Gahan
Forfás

Prof. Keith Palmer
AgDevCo

Opening address:

H.E. Catherine Muigai Mwangi, Kenyan Ambassador

Jan O’Sullivan, Minister of State for Trade and Development

Chaired by: Charlie Bird, Chief News Correspondent, RTE

This event is hosted by:

The Trinity International Development Initiative (TIDI) and the Institute for International Integration Studies (IIIS) at Trinity College Dublin, Self Help Africa and University College Dublin.

RSVP to tidi@tcd.ie by Wednesday 18th May

Irish Aid, Ireland’s official aid programme to developing countries, is delighted to support events marking Africa Day. The focus of Ireland’s aid programme is the fight against poverty and exclusion in some of the world’s least developed countries, particularly in Africa.