

10 Reasons to Study for an M.Litt. or Ph.D. at ISE, Trinity College Dublin

- Study at Ireland's top university and one of the top 50 universities in the world
- Opportunity to apply for a range of scholarships open to ISE students only, as well as general TCD scholarships
- Employment opportunities in academia, NGOs, international organisations, public sector
- Supervision from expert and supportive academic staff
- Trinity's world renowned library
- Choice of Dublin, or Belfast campus
- Enjoy an interdisciplinary approach to understanding peacebuilding, international relations, ecumenical dialogue, intercultural theology and world religions in the 21st century
- Experience a diverse, international student community with active social events
- Full-time or part-time option
- Experience life in Dublin and/or Belfast, historic, vibrant and student-friendly cities

About Us

ISE, Trinity College Dublin, is recognised world-wide for the unique manner in which it brings the fields of politics, sociology, theology and religion into a disciplined interaction. The school offers supervision of Master in Letters (M.Litt) and Doctor in Philosophy degree (Ph.D) in a range of specialisations under expert academic supervision.

Specialised Themes

- Religion and Politics: globalisation; religion and ethics; religious fundamentalism; religion, modernity and post-modernity; religion and migration
- Politics of Peace and Conflict: ethics of nonviolence; peace-building and conflict prevention; civil society; comparative peace processes; political science approaches to conflict resolution
- International Relations: international organisations and conflict; international relations theory; human rights; world religions and international relations
- Ethics in International Affairs: ethics in multicultural societies; human rights; humanitarianism; trafficking and slavery; ethics of sex and gender
- Theologies of Reconciliation: political theology; liberation theology; torture; truth commissions and social reconciliation; education for reconciliation; religion and conflict transformation and peace-building
- Ecumenical Theology: theological foundations and changing faces of ecumenism; ecumenical movements; theological ethics and public theology
- Intercultural Theology: cross-cultural processes of Christianity; Christian theologies in Asia, Africa, and in the Islamic World; migrant churches and cross-cultural ministry
- Interreligious Studies: world religions and comparative theology; interreligious dialogue; Buddhism, Judaism, Hinduism and Islam

Further Information

For further information see our website www.tcd.ie/ise

