Note:

- Details of pre-registration for modules, including the internship module will be sent to students in late summer.
- Details of applying for IPS internship module and registration for it will be emailed to all students in early September
- Details of IPS Internship module will be provided on October 3
- There are no lectures during Reading Week, week 7 in each semester
- Please note that most seminars begin in the second week of each semester.
- Modules in red are IT&IS modules, modules in black are IPS modules and modules in green are shared IPS and IT&IS modules. Modules in blue are offered by other Trinity College departments. Students are free to take up to 2 modules from other ISE MPhils, as well as the non-ISE modules. There are some clashes of IPS modules, but these are unavoidable (outside timetabling with non-ISE departments)
- Two additional modules are not timetabled yet (non-ISE modules): 'Colonialism and Liberal Intervention' (Department of Sociology) and 'Russia-EU Relations' (European Studies)
- EM7433 Conflict Transformation, will run in Belfast November 21, 1pm start - 29 November, This is an intensive module and three days are residential in Corrymeela, Northern Ireland, followed by a weekend off, then 3 days of class in ISE Belfast, Monday-Wednesday, November 27-29, with the remainder of week in ISE Belfast. Places are limited and will be allocated on a first come first serve basis. It is also at student's own cost and non-EU students must arrange their own visas. Students taking this module will be excused from class in Dublin that week. Further details will be distributed of place allocation and module content in Autumn
- EM7491 Religions and Ethics in a Pluralist World will be taught as an intensive module over the 4 days, 18-21 September preceding Orientation Day (22 September). Seminars for this module will take place throughout the semester.
- EM7484 Judaism and Jewish-Christian Relations will be taught as an intensive module over 4 days preceding the start of the second semester, 8-11 January 2018.
- EM7000 Europe and its Others runs for 2 semesters. IPS students may take it for 1st semester for 10ECTS, or for both semesters for 20 ECTS
- Trinity International Development Initiative (TIDI) Seminars will take place on Fridays, 13:00. Although this is not a module that can be taken for credit, ISE students are welcome to attend.
