Introduction

Welcome to the School of Religion where we continue a tradition of scholarship that goes back to the very foundation of Trinity College Dublin.

The School of Religion is one of the twelve Schools that comprise Trinity College's Faculty of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences. It brings together biblical studies, theology, ethics, theory of religion, and international conflict and peace studies as independent but related disciplinary fields.

The School's undergraduate and postgraduate courses explore encounters between religions and cultures from their roots in antiquity to the present day. They investigate the intellectual and institutional resources developed in historical and current interactions and conflicts and apply them to the challenges and the opportunities societies face in an age of globalisation.

The School has a strong commitment to community engagement, has campuses in Belfast and Dublin and is home to the Loyola Institute, the Trinity Centre for Biblical Studies and the Irish School of Ecumenics.

This Handbook summarizes and supplements the regulations that are contained in the University Calendar. However, in the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the General regulations published in the University Calendar and information contained in programme or local handbooks, the provisions of the General Regulations in the Calendar will prevail.

Academic and administrative staff will be available at Orientation to explain most of these requirements, and to answer any queries that you may have about procedures and regulations.

An electronic copy of this Handbook will be available on the School of Religion/Programme website with copies available via the Virtual Learning Environment (VLE). A hard copy of this handbook in large print is available in the School office. Alternative formats of the Handbook can be provided on request.

There may be some modification during the year to the procedures and regulations outlined below; these will be brought to your attention as they arise.

Please note:

Familiarize yourself with College's regulations for postgraduate students. These are available in Part III of the Calendar, accessed at <https://www.tcd.ie/calendar/graduate-studies-higher-degrees/>

Your @tcd.ie email account is the only e-mail address used for official College business. Consult this email account regularly.

Your personal data is kept in accordance with the Student Data Policy: https://www.tcd.ie/info\_compliance/data-protection/student-data/.

College regulations require that you remain resident in the Republic of Ireland, or in Northern Ireland, during the course of your studies. Absence for a substantial period in either of the teaching terms is not permitted.

Research abroad is permitted only with the approval of your Course Coordinator.

1. COURSEWORK REQUIREMENTS

International Peace Studies (IPS)

You will be assessed in six modules over one year (full-time) or over two years (part-time). You will receive a form to register for modules before the start of term. This will ensure that you have access to the virtual learning environment 'Blackboard' for each of your module choices from the start of the year.

You must also write a dissertation of 15-20,000 words.

All students must complete the modules on 'Politics of Peace and Conflict' (PPC) and "Research Methods"; you must choose a further 4 modules for assessment, and, if timetabling permits, you may also audit other modules. Part-time Students: Please take PPC in your 1st year and Research Methods in your second year. Also choose 2 optional modules in your first year and two in your second year. This distribution is not mandatory, but it is advisable. Your timetable and assignment deadlines are the same as for full-time students.

You may be assessed in up to two modules from other M.Phil. courses offered by the School of Religion, with the agreement of the relevant Course Coordinators. You may also be assessed in designated modules offered by other departments in Trinity. A cap may apply to some of these outside modules, including those offered by the School of Religion in Belfast, as places may be limited.

Participants in the module "NGOs and International Politics: Theory and Practice" undertake an internship with a non-governmental organisation. Intake to this module is limited in accordance with the number of internships available. Internships are unpaid and students must bear all associated costs of internships themselves (for example, travel and accommodation). Participating students also need to be aware of any visa and insurance requirements and prepare well in advance. You will receive an invitation to apply for an internship in early Autumn. Successful applicants will be allocated internships in mid-September. Please see the Internship Module Guide for further details.

Intercultural Theology & Interreligious Studies (IT&IS)

You are assessed on the basis of six modules studied over one year (full-time) or over two years (part-time). You will receive a form to register for modules before the start of term. This will ensure that you have access to the virtual learning environment 'Blackboard' for each of your module choices from the start of the year.

You must take the core module "Research and Methods", together with another 5 of the modules on offer. You may be assessed in up to two modules from other M.Phil. courses offered by the School of Religion, with the agreement of the Course Coordinators.

Participants in the module "NGOs and International Politics: Theory and Practice" undertake an internship with a non-governmental organization. Intake to this module is limited in accordance with the number of internships available. Internships are unpaid and students must bear all associated costs of internships themselves (for example, insurance, travel and accommodation). Participating students also need to be aware of any visa requirements and prepare well in advance.

You must also write a dissertation of 15-20,000 words.

Conflict Resolution and Reconciliation (CRR)

You are assessed on the basis of six modules studied over one year (full-time) or over two years (part-time). You must take the core module “Research Skills”, together with another 5 of the modules on offer. You are encouraged (but not required) to include the module “Reconciliation in Northern Ireland” in your selection. You are also welcome to attend modules over and above the minimum requirement, and may apply to be assessed in up to two modules in the School of Religion’s other taught Master’s degree courses (though you will have to bear the costs of travel, etc.). The Community Learning and Reflective Practice module is an unpaid internship available to CRR students within a local peace-building organization. Students enrolled in this module are required to take the “Reconciliation in Northern Ireland” module.

You must also write a dissertation of 15-20,000 words.

Christian Theology (CT)

You are assessed on the basis of six modules (10 ECTS each) comprising three core and three elective modules, and a 15,000-20,000 word dissertation (30 ECTS). The course may be undertaken over one year (full-time) or over two years (part-time). The three core modules are: “Method & Theory in the Study of Theology”, “Violence and Grace in the Human Narrative” and “The First Words: Theology/ies of the Bible” and you must take 3 of the other modules on offer. You will receive a form to register for modules before the start of term. This will ensure that you have access to the virtual learning environment ‘Blackboard’ for each of your module choices from the start of the year.

Part-time students must take all 6 modules in their first year and complete their dissertation in their second year. Your timetable and assignment deadlines are the same as for full-time students.

You may be assessed in up to two modules from other M.Phil. courses offered by the School of Religion, with the agreement of the Course Coordinators.

2. COURSEWORK ASSESSMENT

2.1 General Information

School of Religion courses rely on a continuous assessment system, based on a mixture of written assignments and lecture/seminar attendance. Internship/Service-Learning modules are assessed by participation in a work-placement scheme with an accredited NGO and the submission of a written report and attendance at two seminars.

2.1.1 The Role of External Examiners

Your essays and dissertation are assessed first in the School of Religion and then by the university's External Examiners. Essays pass or fail on the final judgement of the External Examiners, not on the opinion of the teaching staff, although this counts in the final decision. External Examiners meet in late November to monitor assessment procedures and outcomes in all modules and for the dissertation. Final marks for essays and dissertations are decided at this Court of Examiners. Final responsibility for the standard of an essay rests with the student.

List of MPhil External Examiners

CRR – Niall Ó Dochartaigh (NUI Galway)

IPS – Mary Murphy (University College Cork) and Dr Marwan Darweish (Coventry University)

IT&IS - Anne Hege Grung (University of Oslo)

Christian Theology – Philip Endean (Facultes Jesuites de Paris)

The internal examiner of your essay (typically the module co-ordinator, or lecturer for the essay topic) will provide you with a report on your work together with the grade that will be proposed to the Court of Examiners. If your mark is on the threshold between Pass and Fail, or between Distinction and less than 70, then your essay will be marked by a second internal examiner. Your essay report and mark will be communicated to you.

Internal deadlines for your assessments are distributed at the beginning of each academic year. Accomplishing the assignment within the set time limit is a key element of the assessment. If you do not succeed in submitting your essay on time, a 10% penalty is imposed on the grade that you receive. If you are aware in advance that you are unable to meet the set deadline solely due to circumstances beyond your control (e.g., bereavement or illness), you should contact your Course Co-ordinator and request an extension of the deadline; you will be asked to provide appropriate evidence, for instance, a medical certificate. Should you fail to meet the deadlines for one or more essays during the course of your studies, you will be asked to discuss the matter with your Course Co-ordinator. Please see section 3.5 of the Calendar Part 3 for College absence regulations.

2.1.2 Absence Policy

Postgraduate students who consider that illness may prevent them from meeting deadlines should consult their medical advisor and request a medical certificate for an appropriate period. If a certificate is granted, it must be presented to the student's Course Co-ordinator/Director within three days of the beginning of the period of absence. Such medical certificates must state that the student is unfit. Medical certificates will not be accepted in explanation for poor performance. Further details of procedures subsequent to the submission of medical certificates are available in course handbooks or from Course Coordinators/Directors. Postgraduate students who consider that other grave cause beyond their control may prevent them from attending college (or any part thereof) must consult and inform their Course Co-ordinator/Director. The Course Co-ordinator/Director will then make representations to the Dean of Graduate Studies requesting that permission be granted for absence. The acceptance of medical disability is entirely at the discretion of the Dean of Graduate Studies, who may ask for a report from the medical officers in charge of the Student Health Service. The report will be strictly confidential to the Dean of Graduate Studies.

Course participants who fail to meet deadlines and who have not been granted an extension, will be notified that no further work will be accepted from them and that their assessment will be based on work already submitted.

If you have not completed your module requirements before the deadline for your dissertation outline in your final year, then you will not be permitted to submit a dissertation for the M.Phil. degree, nor to receive the postgraduate Diploma.

2.2 Marking Criteria

Your essay will be returned to you with a report together with a standardised form that provides you with indications of where your essay was most successful and where you need to concentrate your future work.

Please note that these criteria are applied specifically to the assessment of your essay to indicate strengths and weaknesses in a particular piece of work. The grade proposed by your internal examiner(s) will seek to balance the various aspects of your achievement.

2.3 Grade Bands

0-29 Highly unsatisfactory - Fail

30-39 Very weak - Fail

40-49 Weak - Fail

50-59 Satisfactory

60-69 Very Good

70-79 Excellent

80+ Truly outstanding

An essay marked below 50 is deemed unsuccessful. A pass mark is from 50 to 69 inclusive. An essay marked 70 or above is in the Distinction class.

Marks are determined by judgements across the criteria and do not necessarily represent the same band of achievement on all criteria. Positive achievements on some criteria compensate for weaknesses on other criteria and vice-versa. The final mark reflects the weighting of the different variables in this judgment, as agreed by the examiners, and subject to confirmation by the Court of Examiners.

Therefore:

0-29 indicates a highly unsatisfactory level of achievement across the criteria.

30-39 highlights a very weak level of achievement across criteria OR so highly unsatisfactory on at least one criteria that achievements on other criteria do not compensate.

40-49 indicates a weak level of achievement across the criteria OR a very weak level of achievement on many criteria

50-59 A satisfactory level of achievement across the criteria OR a good level of achievement on some criteria compensating for weaknesses in others.

60-69 A very good level of achievement across the criteria OR an excellent level on some criteria and at least satisfactory on all criteria.

70-79 An excellent level of achievement on all the criteria OR a truly outstanding achievement on some of the criteria and at least satisfactory on all criteria.

80+ A truly outstanding achievement on all criteria.

2.4 Assessment standard

Most modules require coursework totaling 4,000 words to be submitted according to the internal deadlines distributed at the beginning of each academic year. The internship module “NGOs: Theory and Practice” requires a 3,000 word report. The 30 ECTS dissertation is 15,000-20,000 words long, and is to be submitted in August.

In the calculation of the overall mark for the course, modules are weighted according to their ECTS credit value. The best 5 module marks out of 6 are used to calculate the final overall essay mark. The pass mark for all elements is 50%, except for the internship module which is assessed on a pass/fail/distinction basis. Part-time students must pass all modules taken in the first year in order to proceed to the second year of the course. Students must achieve a mark of at least 50% in each module in order to proceed to dissertation, and must receive a mark of at least 50% in the dissertation to be eligible for the degree of M.Phil. Students that fail an assessment to a maximum of 10 ECTS may resubmit their work, provided that the original submission had been received by its deadline. Compensation is allowed to a maximum of 10 credits at a minimum mark of 40%.

Students can be awarded the M.Phil. with Distinction if they achieve a mark of Distinction (70% or above) on their dissertation and in the final overall average mark. A Distinction cannot be awarded if the candidate has failed any module during the course. A student who does not wish to submit a dissertation for the M.Phil., or who fails the dissertation, may instead opt to be considered for a Postgraduate Diploma provided that they have passed modules amounting to 60 credits. The Postgraduate Diploma may be awarded with Distinction to candidates who, in addition, have achieved an overall average mark of 70% or above. If you do not wish to proceed to the dissertation stage, you should notify your Course Co-ordinator in writing before 1 April. Such students are required to submit module assessments by 1 May.

2.5 Entitlement to an Oral Examination

In a case where the failure of a dissertation is contemplated, the student is entitled to defend their dissertation at an oral examination. This exam must take place prior to, or during, the Court of Examiners. The student will be given the reasons for this examination and at least a week's notice that their presence at the examination board will be necessary. The format for the examination is at the discretion of the course committee.

2.6 Description of ECTS

The European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System (ECTS) is an academic credit system based on the estimated student workload required to achieve the objectives of a module or programme of study. It is designed to enable academic recognition for periods of study, to facilitate student mobility and credit accumulation and transfer. The ECTS is the recommended credit system for higher education in Ireland and across the European Higher Education Area.

The ECTS weighting for a module is a measure of the student input or workload required for that module, based on factors such as the number of contact hours, the number and length of written or verbally presented assessment exercises, class preparation and private study time, laboratory classes, examinations, clinical attendance, professional training placements, and so on as appropriate. There is no intrinsic relationship between the credit volume of a module and its level of difficulty.

The European norm for full-time study over one academic year is 60 credits. 1 credit represents 20-25 hours estimated student input, so a 10-credit module will be designed to require 200-250 hours of student input including class contact time, assessments and examinations.

ECTS credits are awarded to a student only upon successful completion of the programme year. Progression from one year to the next is determined by the programme regulations. Students who fail a year of their programme will not obtain credit for that year even if they have passed certain components. Exceptions to this rule are one-year and part-year visiting students, who are awarded credit for individual modules successfully completed.

2.7 QQI-NFQ Level

Under the QQI-NFQ, the Irish National Framework of Qualifications, the Postgraduate Diploma and MPhil are both Level 9 qualifications.

2.8 Module Descriptors

For the full list of Modules with ECTS weighting, Learning Outcomes and a clear statement on graduate attributes that are achieved within the programme/learning outcomes please consult the relevant programme webpage on the School of Religion website.

2.9 Scholarships

For scholarships please see information available online at:

<https://www.tcd.ie/loyola-institute/scholarships/>

<https://www.tcd.ie/ise/postgraduate/Scholarships.php>

2.10 Timetable

Your timetable will be accessible via your student portal at <https://my.tcd.ie/>. It is also available on the relevant MPhil course page on the website:

<https://www.tcd.ie/religion/postgraduate/>

3. PRESENTING AND SUBMITTING YOUR WORK

3.1 Essays

Module co-ordinators will provide a range of titles for your essays. Most written assessments are 4,000 words in length, excluding footnotes and bibliography. If you are studying IPS or IT & IS and taking the Internship module, you are assessed on the basis of a 3,000 word report – details are provided at the Internship seminars and on the module outline. 4,000 words is about 12 pages of A4 double-spaced, excluding footnotes and bibliography. Essays should not exceed the stated length, and those in excess of the word length will be penalised. The word count for your essays must be given at the end, or beginning of each essay. Please note that you are welcome to submit an outline of your essay plan (one page, A4, maximum) to your module co-ordinator, or lecturer for your topic, before you write your essays and dissertation: this is a helpful way to ensure that, at an early stage in the process, your research and writing are on target.

The School essay submission cover sheet should be used in submitting essays.

The essay should include detailed references (either in-text, or endnotes, or footnotes) and a bibliography laid out in alphabetical order. Your pages should be A4 size, numbered, and your typing double-spaced. Correct spelling (consistently either English or American), grammar and clear presentation are essential.

Retain a copy of each essay that you submit. Your assessments will be submitted via Turnitin or Blackboard and also in hard copies to your course officer (unless specified). Details on how to do this will be provided by your module co-ordinators. Submit each of your essays no later than 5 PM (17.00 H) on the day on which the essay is due, unless otherwise specified. In the case of hard-copy submissions, the Executive Officer will register the date of submission.

3.2 Dissertation

Researching and writing your dissertation is the culmination of your studies in the School. All courses within the School include compulsory modules on research methods and skills, where you will receive guidance for your research proposal and for choosing your dissertation topic.

Your dissertation topic must be relevant to your course's modules and themes. Your dissertation title must be registered before you engage in study on a particular subject; this is to ensure both that the topic is acceptable for assessment and adequate supervision is available. Please note that permission to study a specific topic depends on adequate expertise existing in the School. The topic should not normally coincide with any of your other assessment essays, but you may be granted permission to extend the topic of one of your essays into a dissertation.

You will be asked to notify us of the area in which you wish to write your dissertation, and a supervisor will normally be allocated to you by semester two.

Once you are allocated a supervisor, please arrange to meet her or him as soon as possible. It is your responsibility to arrange an appropriate working relationship with your supervisor, and to submit work in a timely fashion so that there is adequate time for them to provide you with feedback. In general, students should meet with their supervisors at least twice to discuss their dissertation. Your dissertation, like your essays, is marked in the School before being read by your External Examiners and considered at the Court of Examiners. The official written notification of your results will include the internal examiners' report on your dissertation.

In terms of feedback during the writing process, please note that your supervisor will read and provide comments on your proposal and two other chapters. You may also submit short chapter outlines to your supervisor for feedback.

3.3 Submitting Your Dissertation

You are required to submit one soft-bound copy, not spiral bound, and one electronic copy (email copy) to the relevant Executive Officer by the submission deadline. The dissertation must be typed on white A4 Paper, on one side only, using double spacing. A margin of about 3.5 cm on the binding side and 2 cm on the other is required, with a top margin of about 3.5 cm. Pages must be numbered, starting after the Table of Contents.

The current regulations set a minimum of 15,000 and a maximum of 20,000 words, excluding footnotes and bibliography. Dissertations over 20,000 words will be penalised.

The word count for your dissertation must be given at the end of the last chapter or the conclusion.

The structure of the dissertation should be (in this order):

1. Title page, including title and author (this is the name under which you are officially registered in College)
2. Declaration. Use the following wording:

DECLARATION

I certify that this dissertation, submitted in partial fulfilment of the requirement for the degree of M.Phil. has not been submitted for a degree at any other University, and that it is entirely my own work. I agree that the Library may lend or copy the dissertation upon request.

Signed: .....

Date: .....

3. Acknowledgements (if any)
4. Abstracts. You must provide a one-page Abstract at the start of your dissertation. The Abstract of the dissertation (in single spacing), outlines its content and mode of investigation. It should be headed by title and author and entitled "Abstract".
5. Table of Contents
6. Introduction
7. Chapters
8. References (if you are not using the Harvard system whereby references are in brackets in the text)
9. Bibliography

You must also include:

- (i) a list of abbreviations used in the dissertation (if such abbreviations are extensive), placed either before the Introduction or immediately before the Bibliography. This should be noted in the Contents.

You may also include:

- (ii) appendices, containing any important extra material you need to include. Any appendices are placed after the conclusion but before the bibliography.

You must follow the exact form and colour of the binding required for the dissertation. It should be bound in dark blue cloth, with front lettering in gold. The name of the degree (M.Phil.) must appear on the front cover. The name of the degree is followed by the year of submission and the student's name. The front cover should show the title of the dissertation.

Your name must appear on the front cover of the dissertation exactly as registered. If in doubt, please check with the Executive Officer of your M.Phil. course. First name initials are not allowed.

3.4 Referencing

Clear and accurate referencing is an important part of the scholarly task. Your reader should be able to see when you are quoting directly from a source, when you are summarizing a source, and when you are advancing your own judgement on the sources to which have referred. The reference that you provide should enable your reader to check the sources that you have used. And, as section 5 on Plagiarism, below, makes clear, clear and accurate referencing is essential to the scholarly enterprise.

Quotations (and references generally) must be made with care for accuracy. Quote the exact words; if you have to add extra words to clarify the sense, put them in square brackets; if you omit any, indicate that you have done so with three dots; so, for example:

It is instructive to note the comment of Henry Kissinger: “[In such cases] ... it is essential to bear in mind the role of personal humility in the exercise of diplomacy.”

If a quotation is going to take up more than two lines in your script, or if you wish to give it a special emphasis, make a distinct paragraph of it: indent the whole paragraph five places in from the left hand margin, with single spacing and without quotation marks. Always when you quote or refer, supply a precise reference to the work and page or pages to which you have referred.

It is a standard and essential academic requirement to cite the source of ideas taken from other authors and to place direct quotes in quotation marks. Where the idea or quotation is second-hand, i.e., drawn from a citation in another source, that fact should be noted in your list of references, e.g. Sen, 1999, p. 75, as cited in Todaro, 2009, p. 16.

Web-based resources should be referenced with the following information: author of the document, title of the document, website address, and the date at which you accessed the site.

The work of compiling an accurate bibliography and footnotes is immeasurably lightened if proper care is taken from the beginning of your research to keep such details. When you note down a quotation or other reference, take care to record with it the full and precise details of publication.

A useful book concerning references and the use of sources and related issues in particular is: Charles Lipson (2004) Doing Honest Work in College, Chicago University Press, Chicago.

3.5 Reference Styles

College does not require you to employ a particular reference style – you may, therefore use styles that rely on endnotes or footnotes (e.g., Chicago), or that provide references in parentheses in the body of your text (e.g., Harvard), as long as you are consistent in their use – never ever mix the referencing styles.

Endnotes or footnotes serve two chief purposes: (i) to give a reference or several references; or (ii) to discuss a point which is incidental to your main argument, but which you wish nevertheless to acknowledge, or which serves to supplement or clarify your text. Most of your footnotes or endnotes will be of the first type.

Footnote and Endnote references should be in single spacing and may be placed at the bottom of the relevant page (Footnotes) or in numerical order before the bibliography at the end of the dissertation or essay (Endnotes).

In the bibliography for your essays and dissertation, books, journal articles, online resources or book chapters should be listed alphabetically by author surname. The bibliography should include all works that you quote or mention in your references. Full publication details of the books and articles should be given, and you should follow a consistent pattern for doing this. The titles of books and journals should be italicised (or underlined), but not the titles of articles in journals. These should be put in inverted commas or quotation marks.

The following methods of citing a work are recommended for the respective programmes:

Footnote/Endnote

- International Peace Studies

1. Michael Todaro (2009) Economic Development (Tenth Edition), Addison-Wesley, Harlow U.K., p. 12.

- Intercultural Theology & Interreligious Studies

(1) Linda L. Gaither, To Receive a Text: Literary Reception Theory as a Key to Ecumenical Reception, American University Studies, Series VII Theology and Religion, Vol. 192, New York: Peter Lang, 1997, 138.

You must give full details of the source in footnotes and endnotes when you first quote from it, as well as when you list it in your bibliography. Subsequent quotations from the same text may use an abbreviated form, e.g., Gaither, To Receive a Text, 155-160 or Todaro, 2000, pp. 175-176.

- Conflict Resolution and Reconciliation Studies

Students are asked to follow the Harvard style of referencing: a style sheet will be provided to assist students.

Bibliography

- International Peace Studies

Sen, Amartya (1999) Development as Freedom, Oxford University Press, Oxford.

In the case of articles, the citation should include the author, date, title of the article, the journal or periodical title, the volume and issue numbers, and page numbers. For example:

Gleditsch, Nils Petter (1992) "Democracy and Peace", Journal of Peace Research, Vol. 29, No. 4, pp. 369-376.

In the case of book chapters or articles in edited volumes, the citation should be listed by author of the chapter or article and include the year of publication (of the book), the title of the chapter or article, editor(s) of the book, title of the book, publisher, city of publication, and page numbers. For example:

Taylor, Richard (2005) "Pacifism as a Way of Life" in Robert L. Holmes and Barry L. Gan (eds), Nonviolence in Theory and Practice (Second Edition), Waveland Press, Long Grove IL, pp. 244-246.

- Intercultural Theology & Interreligious Studies

Ephraim Radner, The End of the Church: A Pneumatology of Christian Division in the West, Grand Rapids, Michigan and Cambridge U.K.: Eerdmans, 1998.

In the case of articles, the citation should include the author, the title of the article, the journal or periodical title, the volume and issue numbers, the date and page numbers. For example:

Arthur Wells, 'Bishop Christopher Butler at Vatican II: His Role in Dei Verbum,' The Downside Review, Vol. 120 No. 419 (2002), 129-154.

- Conflict Resolution and Reconciliation Studies

Students are asked to follow the Harvard style of referencing: a style sheet will be provided to assist students.

4. RESEARCH ETHICS

The School's research community takes great care to ensure that our research activities follow best ethical practice in their design, content and conduct. Staff and students are required to follow College policies and maintain appropriate ethical standards in their research, and especially in any research involving human subjects.

Dissertation proposals must be accompanied by a completed School Research Ethics Checklist. This checklist (below) enables you to determine the level of Research Ethics oversight appropriate to your project. You must include this initial checklist when you submit your dissertation proposal.

If you do not answer 'yes' to any of these questions, then you may apply to the School's Research Ethics Committee to secure clearance and permission to proceed with your project (this is referred to as Level 1 clearance). If, however, you answer 'yes' to any of the questions, then your application falls into the category of moderate to high risk and requires Level 2 clearance; it must be considered by the Faculty Research Ethics Committee to which you apply via:

<http://ahss.tcd.ie/Faculty%20Ethics%20Committee/FacultyEthicsCommittee.php>

Although the Faculty Research Ethics Committee meets regularly to consider applications for research ethics clearance, if you think you will need clearance at this level then the sooner that you submit your proposal the better.

Checklist:

Does your research/ project involve:	Yes	No
1. A survey asking questions of a sensitive or private nature
2. A questionnaire or observational studies involving children or vulnerable adults.
3. Research where there is a risk of a participant feeling undue pressure to participate by virtue of his/her relationship with the researcher (e.g. student/supervisor; patient/clinician).
4. A project involving a justifiable degree of deception.
5. Analysis of archival irrevocably anonymised human tissue samples for which consent for research was not originally given, and was not acquired in the course of clinical treatment. (Archived samples taken for a previous research study must always get new ethical approval).
6. Research involving invasive procedures.
7. Research involving vulnerable persons.
8. Research where identifiable information obtained may have legal, economic or social consequences for research subjects.
9. Research that may identify illegal activity
10. A project where each subject is paid (over and above token gestures).

11. Research that may potentially endanger the subjects, and/or researchers, and/or 3rd parties, and/or the environment.
12. Research involving the collection of human tissue.
13. Research that may have a direct military role.
14. Potentially harmful research involving humans conducted outside Ireland.
15. Research involving psychological intervention.
16. Research where a potentially beneficial or harmful treatment, information or learning method may be withheld from some participants.

5. PLAGIARISM

To ensure that you have a clear understanding of what plagiarism is, how Trinity deals with cases of plagiarism, and how to avoid it, you will find a repository of information at https://www.tcd.ie/library/support/plagiarism/story\_html5.html

We ask you to take the following steps:

- (i) Visit the online resources to inform yourself about how Trinity deals with plagiarism and how you can avoid it at https://www.tcd.ie/library/support/plagiarism/story\_html5.html. You should also familiarize yourself with the 2018-19 Calendar entry on plagiarism located on this website and the sanctions which are applied;
- (ii) Complete the 'Ready, Steady, Write' online tutorial on plagiarism at <https://tcd-ie.libguides.com/plagiarism/ready-steady-write>. Completing the tutorial is compulsory for all students.
- (iii) Familiarise yourself with the declaration that you will be asked to sign when submitting course work at <https://tcd-ie.libguides.com/plagiarism/declaration>;
- (iv) Contact your Course-Co-ordinator or your Lecturer if you are unsure about any aspect of plagiarism.

6. COLLEGE DISABILITY SERVICE

The School welcomes applications from prospective students with disabilities, and endeavours to assist all students to realise their potential by offering a range of supports that include reasonable accommodations.

The Disability Service in Trinity College Dublin provides advice and support to students who disclose their disability prior to entry and whilst studying in College. Students with disabilities are encouraged to attend the College Open Day – usually in early December of the year preceding entry, or to contact the Disability Service to arrange a visit. We also encourage students with disabilities to register with the Disability Service at the beginning of the academic year in order to seek supports and facilitate participation in their course. Students who do not disclose a disability cannot avail of reasonable accommodations and cannot claim that they have been discriminated against (on grounds of disability), if they have not disclosed a disability. For further information, or to discuss the supports that are available please contact the Disability Service at disab@tcd.ie or visit <https://www.tcd.ie/disability/>

7. POSTGRADUATE APPEALS PROCESS

The Postgraduate Appeals Process is outlined in the Trinity College Calendar, Part 3, Section 1.10. All appeals should be heard first at School level. The grounds for appeal against the decision of Taught Course Committees are outlined in the Calendar under "General Regulations".

A student who wishes to appeal should first write to their Course Co-ordinator, within two weeks of the publication of results, stating clearly the grounds for appeal and, where necessary, enclosing documentary evidence.

The Course Co-ordinator will then discuss the case with the relevant parties and attempt to find a solution.

If the Course Co-ordinator cannot resolve the matter, the student may appeal to the School Appeals Committee (Taught Postgraduate). The Director of Teaching and Learning Postgraduate (DTLP) will convene and chair this committee which will be composed of one Course Co-ordinator (of a programme not taken by the student) and another member of academic staff. At the School Appeals Committee, the student concerned should have representation appropriate to the formality of the process, for example, a supervisor, Course Co-ordinator or other appropriate staff member.

No one will be appointed to an Appeals Committee where a conflict of interest might arise. Should the DTLP experience a conflict of interest, she or he will be substituted by the Head of School.

Appeals against the decision of a School Appeals Committee (Taught Postgraduate) may be made in writing to the Dean of Graduate Studies, who has the discretion to grant or deny the appeal. Appeals against the decision of the Dean of Graduate Studies may be brought to the Academic Appeals Committee for Graduate Students (Taught). This committee will consider appeals concerning events occurring more than 4 months prior only in the most exceptional circumstances.

For further details of appeals at College level, please consult the Calendar Part 3.

9. STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

There are a range of services to turn to for advice and support should you need it at any stage of your studies. The main services are outlined below, and you will receive more information on what the various services provide at orientation. For a general list of all Student Support Services, visit the website: <https://www.tcd.ie/students/supports-services/> or download the leaflet here: Student Support Services booklet.

Belfast students can find further information on how to access Student Support Services as well as a Healthcare factsheet at the following link:

<http://www.tcd.ie/ise/postgraduate/conflict-resolution.php>

10. POSTGRADUATE ADVISORY SERVICE

The Postgraduate Advisory Service is a unique and confidential service available to all registered postgraduate students in Trinity College. It offers a comprehensive range of academic, pastoral and professional supports dedicated to enhancing your student experience.

Who?

The Postgraduate Advisory Service is led by the Postgraduate Support Officer who provides frontline support for all Postgraduate students in Trinity. The Postgrad Support Officer will act as your first point of contact and a source of support and guidance regardless of what stage of your studies you're at. In addition each Faculty has three members of Academic staff appointed as Postgraduate Advisors to whom you can be referred by the Postgrad Support Officer for extra assistance if needed.

Contact details of the Postgrad Support Officer and the Advisory Panel are available on our website: http://www.tcd.ie/Senior\_Tutor/postgraduate/

Where?

The PAS is located on the second floor of House 27. We're open from 8.30 – 4.30, Monday to Friday. Appointments are available from 9 am to 4 pm.

Phone: 8961417

Email: pgsupp@tcd.ie

What?

The PAS exists to ensure that all Postgrad students have a contact point who they can turn to for support and information about college services and academic issues arising. Representation assistance to Postgrad students is offered in the area of discipline and/or academic appeals arising out of examinations or thesis submissions, supervisory issues. If in doubt, get in touch! All queries will be treated with confidentiality. For more information on what we offer see our website.

If you have any queries regarding your experiences as a Postgraduate Student in Trinity don't hesitate to get in touch with us.

11. GRADUATE STUDENTS' UNION

Located on the second floor of House Six, the Graduate Students' Union is an independent body within College that represents postgraduate students throughout College. Upon registration, all postgraduates are automatically members. It is run by two full-time sabbatical officers. The President, is the head and public face of the Union, and is responsible for strategy and policy formulation, whilst sitting on a wide range of committees. The Vice-President is also the Union's Education and Welfare Officer and advises students on matters such as academic appeals and supervisor relationships. S/He is also here to help on more personal matters, such as financial concerns, illness and bereavement. Any discussions about such concerns are treated with the strictest confidence.

The GSU website www.tcdgsu.ie provides the latest updates from the Union, information on elections, campaigns and connections to the Union's social media platforms. Students can arrange meetings with the sabbatical officers via emailing either the GSU President at president@tcdgsu.ie or the GSU Vice-President at vicepresident@tcdgsu.ie or by contacting the office landline at (01) 896 1169.

Another useful contact for research students is the GSU Research Student Officer who can be contacted at phd@tcdgsu.ie

The GSU help organise elections for class and School Reps. The class reps report to their School Rep who attends the School Executive Committee meetings and represents the whole school in the GSU. The class rep in Belfast also attends the monthly staff meetings.

12. CAREERS

Link to careers office <https://www.tcd.ie/Careers/////>

Students can make an appointment with a Careers Advisor through MyCareer. To avail of this service please login to MyCareer with your Trinity student name and password, update your profile and you can then book an appointment. The address of the School's Careers Advisor, Orlaith Tunney, is tunneyo@tcd.ie.

Students may also wish to avail of the following online resources: overview of careers resources for postgraduate taught students and Plan Your Career for Postgraduate Students and the Trinity LinkedIn Alumni Tool

<https://ie.linkedin.com/school/trinity-college-dublin/>.

13. CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

It's not all about study – we hope you will enjoy your time outside the classroom too and participate in university life as fully as possible.

You can find a list of clubs and societies on the main College website:

<http://trinitysocieties.ie/> and details of the Trinity Sports Centre:

<https://www.tcd.ie/Sport/facilities/sports-centre/>

Belfast based students can join clubs and societies run by the nearby Queen's University Student's Union and are entitled to use Queen's Sports Centre, PEC, under a joint arrangement set up between the two Students Unions.

14. STUDY ABROAD

MPhil students should consult their course coordinators regarding opportunities to study abroad.

15. FIELD TRIPS

MPhil students can benefit from a visit to the UN/Geneva which takes place each May, as well as a Belfast Field Trip in January. Details of further field trips as part of the course offerings will be provided throughout the year by your Course Coordinator.

16. GRADUATION

Following the Court of Examiners, the University's decision to award a degree must be processed and ratified at different committee levels, and you should not expect to be commenced within less than two months of a Court decision.

Many students of the School aim to be commenced in April, or June. The School hosts an alumni gathering to coincide with one of the commencement dates, and this is an enjoyable opportunity to reconnect with classmates, teachers and alums.

All queries about your Commencement, following the Court of Examiners, must be addressed to the Academic Registry.

Remember that TCD will contact you at the home address that you provided at registration. Any change of address must be notified to TCD on completion of the course.

Please note: you may not graduate until all outstanding fees and charges (including library charges) have been paid.

17. FEEDBACK

Much of this Handbook is taken up with rules and procedural requirements. This is unavoidable if we are to ensure that the School's courses are well-structured and that the degree you obtain is of real value. But the experience of postgraduate study should be richer than the mere passing of assessment requirements and the School of Religion encourages you to participate in our continuing efforts to improve our procedures as the year advances and to make an evaluation of your experience at the end.

Your suggestions on every aspect of the programme will be invited throughout the year. At the end of each semester, you will be asked to complete an assessment of each of the modules that you have undertaken. The information that you supply is invaluable to staff in the further development of the School. You may also be asked to take part in an online survey conducted by the Faculty of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences. Please note that in any official survey you will remain anonymous, and your assessment of your experience in the School of Religion – whether positive, negative or both – is fed into a structured assessment of teaching and learning. Of course, you do not have to wait for these formal assessments to take place: staff are available at regular office hours (communicated at the start of the year) and they welcome your concerns and suggestions. Your class will also elect a class representative, who will be able to articulate your concerns through the appropriate channels.

18. EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

In the event of an emergency, dial Security Services on extension 1999

Security Services provide a 24-hour service to the college community, 365 days a year. They are the liaison to the Fire, Garda and Ambulance services and all staff and students are advised to always telephone extension 1999 (+353 1 896 1999) in case of an emergency.

Should you require any emergency or rescue services on campus, you must contact Security Services. This includes chemical spills, personal injury or first aid assistance.

Belfast students will be provided with separate emergency information at orientation.

It is recommended that all students save at least one emergency contact in their phone under ICE (In Case of Emergency).

19. HEALTH AND SAFETY

Please try to ensure you use equipment and facilities in a way that protects your own and others' health and safety. Report any faults to a member of staff rather than trying to fix equipment yourself. Further details applicable to the Dublin and Belfast sites will be provided at the start of term.

20. KEY DATES

Key dates for each MPhil course are posted on the relevant course page on the website: <https://www.tcd.ie/religion/>. Submission deadlines for coursework will be provided by your module coordinator and can usually be found in the syllabus.

21. KEY LOCATIONS

Facilities information will be provided at orientation.
