

SCHOOL OF Languages, Literatures & Cultural Studies

Faculty of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences Non-EU Masters Scholarship

Please see overleaf for more information

The School of Languages, Literatures and Cultures offers two Faculty Masters scholarships to Non-EU eligible graduate applicants who wish to study at TCD and pursue a full-time Masters degree in one of the School's Postgraduate Programmes in the academic year 2017-2018.

A Masters programme in SLLCS is a unique opportunity to gain knowledge and skills through postgraduate studies in specific subject areas that will equip students with advanced intercultural competencies necessary for negotiating an increasingly interconnected world.

The School of Languages, Literatures and Cultural Studies offers the following Masters Programmes:

MPhil in Comparative Literature
MPhil in Early Irish
MPhil in European Studies
MPhil in Literary Translation
MPhil in Medieval Language, Literature and Culture
MPhil in Textual and Visual Studies

The SLLCS PG programmes offer a rich and challenging spectrum of interdisciplinary core and optional taught postgraduate modules across a range of literary-critical, linguistic, historical and cultural investigations to undertake the critical study of how European and global cultures construct and legitimize identities, discourses and practices.

The one-year scholarships will consist of non-EU fee remission of €5,000 in the 2017/18 academic year. Course information can be found at:
www.tcd.ie/langs-lit-cultures/postgraduate

Applicants should complete the application process at:
<http://www.tcd.ie/courses/postgraduate/az/course.php> and should submit a supporting statement of motivation of approximately 500 words outlining their reasons for applying for the course and their main areas of academic interest.

Applicants who wish to be considered for the scholarship should complete the application process online before submitting their statement of motivation to the Director of Postgraduate Teaching and Learning: Dr Giuliana Adamo (gadamo@tcd.ie). The selection committee will make a decision based on applicants' statement of motivation in conjunction with their academic records. Closing date is: Friday 26th May 2017
