LIBRARY HITS:
LIBRARY CATALOGUE AND READING LISTS

Isolde Harpur and Nicole Seabrook
Michaelmas Term 2015
SESSION OVERVIEW

At the end of this session students will know how to:

• Access their Reading Lists

• Differentiate between the various types of reading recommended

• Find Reading List material in Stella Search - the Library’s main catalogue

• Use Advanced Search techniques

• Identify which items can be borrowed to bring home and for how long

• Locate a book on the Library shelves
WHAT ARE READING LISTS?

Reading Lists are lists of material recommended by the lecturer

- They can be included on the School website, on Blackboard or may be distributed in class
- The Library seeks to obtain a copy of every Reading List and to make the items available to students
- Sometimes a lecturer will make a distinction between primary/core/required/essential/critical reading and additional reading
- Some Reading Lists will take a while to get used to, e.g. Law
If students cannot locate an item in the Library listed on their Reading List, they should contact their Subject Librarian:

...or talk to the lecturer who recommended the item

The Library is not always informed about every book that appears on a Reading List!

ITEMS ON READING LISTS

Books
Book chapters
Theses
Journal articles

All of these and more can appear on a Reading List. Layout of items on the list can vary from School to School

How do you go about finding Reading List items in the Library?
Start with Stella Search - the Library Catalogue
Esther Johnson
aka “Stella”
Stella Search is the Library’s online catalogue:

- Single search access to most of the Library’s print and electronic collections
- Includes books, DVDs, theses, maps and journal articles
- If you can’t find what you are looking for, please ask us

Stella works by:

- Keyword searching
- Narrowing search results via “Facets”
Library Catalogue Only:
Searches for titles of books or journals that are available in the Library either in printed or electronic format.

Articles and More:
Searches for journal articles (incl book reviews) indexed by Stella.

Availability

- In The Library:
  - Physically available in the Library

- Online:
  - Off campus access
Sometimes it looks as though Stella is telling you we have a book but it may just be a review of the book. If we don’t have a book and you think we should, contact your Subject Librarian. Let’s see what happens when you look for this in Stella:
Once you don’t see Library Catalogue Only under the Refine by section it means we don’t have the book either in printed or electronic form. What you are getting here is a review of the book in a journal called Library Journal.

Books that appear on Reading Lists often have a copy on Counter Reserve:

Located by the counters in the Iveagh Hall (Berkeley Library), Hamilton Library and John Stearne Medical Library (JSML)

Material:

- Multiple copies of books in heavy demand
- Lecture notes
- Other materials deposited by lecturers

Material cannot be removed from the Library

You may borrow up to 4 items

Five-hour loan period

Books must be returned at the Counter (the book return box may only be used when the Counter is closed)

Heavy fines for overdue items – 25 cent per hour or part of an hour

Tip: Title of book that the chapter is in, usually appears in italics on your reading list. This is what you search for in the catalogue, not the title of the book chapter.
