WELCOME TO TRINITY

Trinity College Dublin has been a world-leading university since its establishment in 1592. Over 400 years later, Trinity remains a global leader in high-quality, internationally-recognised education and pioneering research. Centuries of discovery support every footstep across the cobblestoned paths of Trinity's historic campus. A tradition of excellence underpins every lecture, every experiment and every breakthrough in our world-class facilities. At Trinity College Dublin, students have an almost limitless choice of academic options and are part of both a distinguished history and a bold future.

BEYOND A GREAT EDUCATION

Trinity College Dublin brings together a diverse, curious and supportive community of students and faculty in the heart of Dublin. The truly accessible and dedicated professors encourage students to actively engage in College life and the city beyond the campus gates. At Trinity, involvement in student organisations is not just a hobby; it plays an integral part in your education and allows you to engage passionately in all of your interests.

OUTSIDE THE LECTURE THEATRE

- 200+ student societies, publications and sports clubs
- Oldest student societies in the world: 'The Phil' and 'The Hist', rival debating societies, date back over 300 years
- Oldest student newspaper in Ireland, founded in 1953
- 50+ sports clubs welcome members of all levels

THINK TRINITY FOR COMMUNITY

FOSTERING INDEPENDENT THINKERS

Trinity is one of the world's only universities to provide all undergraduate students with a personal Tutor - a faculty member who can offer academic, personal and professional guidance. A wide range of student services, including learning development support, peer mentoring, careers advising and counselling, ensure that all students have the support they need to succeed in Trinity and beyond.

THINK TRINITY FOR RENOWN

WHAT IS RESEARCH-LED TEACHING?

All of Trinity's faculty members are active researchers in their fields, as well as engaging in undergraduate teaching. Trinity is committed to involving students at every level in pioneering research.

TRINITY'S LIBRARY

The largest library in Ireland, Trinity has been a deposit library since 1801, entitled to a copy of every title published in the UK and Ireland. The collection spans several facilities and holds upwards of 6 million volumes, including over half a million maps.

Trinity's campus lies at the very centre of Dublin city. Within minutes of museums, seats of government, theatres and global corporations, Trinity is an oasis in the middle of a vibrant European capital.

For centuries, Dublin has been renowned for music and literature. Now it is also a European hub of innovation.

CONNECTED TO THE GLOBE

Over 20 million people pass through Dublin Airport every year. Only 1 hour from London and 5 hours from New York, Dublin is a hub for Ryanair and Aer Lingus, low cost carriers connecting to over 120 European destinations.

Dublin ranks in the top 15 cities worldwide for student life and was named the world's 4th UNESCO City of Literature.

Dublin is home to Europe's largest urban park, part of the city's 5000 acres of green space.

Ireland consistently ranks as one of the safest and friendliest countries in the world. Our air is clean, our hilltops are the world's greenest and our education system is world-class.
