Beginners Gardening Course

Hazel Proctor is an award-winning garden designer and lecturer who has worked in many prestigious gardens across Ireland. During the Beginners Gardening Course, you will gain a wide range of gardening skills such as how to propagate your own plants, the principles of pruning and how to choose the right plants for your garden. The course also includes lectures on the history of garden design and regular plant identification walks. Throughout the year, we enjoy visits to horticultural gems such as the War Memorial Garden and The National Botanic Gardens.

How to apply

Please email Hazel at proctoh@tcd.ie to confirm your booking. Places are limited so early booking is advised.

Fee

The course costs €950 and a deposit of €200 must be paid by 6th September to secure your place. The remainder must be paid by the start of the course – October 2nd.

Date and Time

The course will start October 2nd and will run until May 2020. Class will be held at the Trinity College Botanic Garden in Dartry, Dublin 6, from 10am to 3pm each week. We follow the academic year so there will be mid-term breaks and holidays during Christmas and Easter.

Weekend Gardening Course

This is a four-week introductory course which will run each Saturday, for the month of October 2019. We will cover a range of topics such as how to divide your herbaceous perennials, how to test your garden soil, the principles of pruning and choosing the right plants for your garden. Class will be held from 10am to 3pm each week with tea and coffee included. Please Note: this course will be repeated in April 2020 with bookings open in January. Please contact Hazel for further information.
