Laidlaw Undergraduate Research and Leadership Programme

Travel Fund

Overview

The Travel Fund provides additional support to Laidlaw Scholars who elect to travel as part of their research activities. Applications will only be considered for travel that is relevant to a Scholar’s engagement with the Laidlaw Programme, e.g. research trips, conferences. Scholars must have the support of their supervisor for any travel and will be required to complete a risk assessment prior to their trip. Applications are reviewed by Trinity Careers Service and all decisions are final.

Up to €1,800 in total can be applied for over the two years of the Laidlaw Programme. Allocations will normally be approved for up to €900 in each year (exceptional circumstances will be considered on a case-by-case basis).

Eligibility

- Applicants must be current Laidlaw Scholars
- Applications by Scholars who have completed the programme will be considered on a case-by-case basis. These applications should pertain to opportunities to present the finalised research after the conclusion of the official programme period. Application must be made within 6 months of the end date of the programme and the applicant must still be a registered Trinity student
- This funding intended to reimburse costs of travel only, e.g., trains, planes, visas, etc.
- This funding is not intended to cover accommodation, conference fees, subsistence or other travel-related costs which should be met from the Laidlaw Programme stipend or other applicable funding. Applications where accommodation or conference fees are a significant cost incurred will be considered on an exceptional basis
- Travel between Trinity and the Scholars’ home location is excluded (or equivalent journeys as judged by the Student Employability Officer)
- Students must also complete a risk assessment prior to travel, available on the Laidlaw webpage
- Retrospective applications are not permitted
- Applications in respect of conference attendance must be signed by the Scholar’s supervisor
Travel Insurance

Trinity College Dublin strongly recommends that all students secure sufficient travel insurance prior to embarking on any trip. Information on the Trinity Travel Insurance Policy and recommendations are available here:

Visas

If you are planning on studying abroad then you may need a visa to enter the country which you are planning to visit. There is no single application for a visa as the requirements vary from country to country. Your first step should be to look at the Embassy website of the country you wish to study in. This should help you identify the exact type of visa you need and therefore, the appropriate application form to complete.

The cost of the visa can be included in your application to the Travel Fund.

We recommend consulting with the local visa office (or your host institution) for advice on relevant visas.

Travel Advice

Students are recommended to consult the Irish Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade website for up to date travel advice before embarking on any trip: https://www.dfa.ie/travel/travel-advice/
