

Trinity Employability Award Learning Outcomes and Assessment Rubric

Learning Outcomes:

On completing Stage 1 (workshop), students will be able to:

Critically evaluate how technologies are emerging and affecting our lives/industries in ways that indicate we are at the beginning of a 4th Industrial Revolution

Present a clear and concise report that showcases their own unique take on the topic.

Demonstrate the initiative and breath of research you took to actively learn about the topic.

Assessment Rubric (includes weighting of marks and marking scheme)

Weighting	Criteria	Excellent (40-50)	Satisfactory (20-39)	Unsatisfactory (<20)
50%	Critically evaluate how technologies are indicating we are at the beginning of a 4th Industrial Revolution	Submission demonstrates critical evaluation of the 4 th Industrial Revolution and links to Digital 4.0/predictive analytics gained from the MSD workshop and wider research	Submission demonstrates critical evaluation of the 4 th Industrial Revolution and links to Digital 4.0/predictive analytics gained from the MSD workshop only	There is little critical evaluation demonstrated
Score
Weighting	Criteria	Excellent (20-25)	Satisfactory (10-19)	Unsatisfactory (<10)
25%	Present a clear and concise report that showcases their own unique take on the topic	The report is written to a very high standard that is very clearly thought out and structured well	The report is written to a high standard that is structured well	The report is poorly written with no clear flow or thought process
Score
Weighting	Criteria	Excellent (20-25)	Satisfactory (10-19)	Unsatisfactory (<10)

25%	Demonstrate the initiative and breath of research you took to actively learn about the topic	There is clear and sophisticated breadth of research and originality of content	There is breadth of research and originality of content to a passable standard	The submission demonstrates little research/originality of content
Score
TOTAL
Feedback				