

Trinity Employability Award Learning Outcomes and Assessment Rubric

Learning Outcomes Stage 2:

On completing Stage 2 of the assessment, students will be able to:

- Exhibit the research undertaken in completing the report verbally to showcase the critical evaluation of how technologies are emerging and affecting our lives/industries in ways that indicate we are at the beginning of a 4th Industrial Revolution
- To Communicate Effectively: Display a clear and concise presentation that showcases their own unique take on the topic.
- To Think Independently: Demonstrate the initiative and breath of research you took to actively learn about the topic.

Assessment Rubric (includes weighting of marks and marking scheme)

Weighting	Criteria	Excellent (40-50)	Satisfactory (20-39)	Unsatisfactory (<20)
50%	Critically evaluate how technologies are indicating we are at the beginning of a 4th Industrial Revolution	Presentation demonstrates critical evaluation of the 4 th Industrial Revolution and links to Digital 4.0/predictive analytics gained from the MSD workshop and wider research	Presentation demonstrates critical evaluation of the 4 th Industrial Revolution and links to Digital 4.0/predictive analytics gained from the MSD workshop only	There is little critical evaluation demonstrated in the presentation
Score
Weighting	Criteria	Excellent (20-25)	Satisfactory (10-19)	Unsatisfactory (<10)
25%	Presentation showcases a unique take on the topic that is clear and well-structured	Presentation of a very high standard that is very clearly thought out	Presentation of a high standard that flows well	The presentation is poorly presented with no clear flow or thought process
Score
Weighting	Criteria	Excellent (20-25)	Satisfactory (10-19)	Unsatisfactory (<10)

25%	Demonstrate the initiative and breath of research you took to actively learn about the topic	There is clear and sophisticated breadth of research and originality of content	There is breadth of research and originality of content to a passable standard	The submission demonstrates little research/originality of content
Score
TOTAL
Feedback				