TCD Employability Award – Deloitte Approach

Workshop 1:
Blockchain: 16 March 2021 10:00 am – 12:00 noon
Logistics: Workshops will be facilitated on Zoom
CV Clinic: Grainne - 24 March from 2.00PM
Level 3: Competition – Project assignment

Project assignment:
1. Select one of the Deloitte topics and provide a brief analysis of the topic and recommendations
2. You will also be assessed on the creativity of your recommendations the feasibility of the implementation of your recommendations (ie budget, resources and additional supports) and presentation of your assignment.
Project Structure

Proposal submission should consist of the following information;

An introduction
- WHAT: What is your recommendation?
- WHY: Why would your recommendation work well?
- HOW: How would you implement your ideas?
- BENEFITS: List the potential benefits of your idea.
- BUDGET: Consider the costs & how realistic your idea is.

Format: PowerPoint (no limit to number of slides but please keep to 1500 word count max) or Word
Length: Maximum 1500 word count (excluding referencing)
Entitle Slides:
Name_TopicNumber_TCDEmployabilityAward
e.g. GrainneQuinn_Topic1_TCDEmployabilityAward
Submission: Email to grquinn@Deloitte.ie
Deadline: 1.00PM, 7 April 2021
How do we make Deloitte the most inclusive company in Ireland?

Attracting top talent is integral to Deloitte’s success, how do we better engage with students virtually and online?

How do Deloitte attract talent from all education courses?

Deloitte already has a Green initiative in place, but what more can we do as a company to reduce our carbon footprint?