

Your Degree What Next: Classical Civilisation

What can I do with my Degree?

To study Classic Civilisation is to study the roots of western civilisation, the origins of our political and cultural institutions, and to understand how the classical past has profoundly affected ideas and values in the contemporary world. Study of the ancient world develops skills of interpretation and communication that are extremely useful in many areas of work.

Business, librarianship, museum work, publishing, teaching and theatre are some of the many fields recent graduates have entered. Recent graduates are working for companies as diverse as Smurfit Communications, Blackwell Publishing and the Gare St. Lazare Players.

Below are some examples of the roles that graduates are in 9 months after graduating.

Roles

Blue book Trainee
Copywriter and Researcher
Executive assistant
Junior researcher
Technical Writer
Fundraising Coordinator

Employers

European Commission
Ditto TV London
Future Wealth
Statista Global
Monument Group
Focus Ireland

Some of the areas that Classical Civilisation graduates have pursued postgraduate qualifications include: Art History, Education, International Relations, Management, Law, Interactive Digital Media and I.T.

Useful Resources

The organisations and professional bodies listed below are useful resources for career / sector specific information:

Resources

gradireland (IE)
Targetjobs (UK)
Prospects (UK)
Vault Career Insider (Global)

Professional Bodies

Classical Association of Ireland
Institute of Classical Studies (UK)
The Classical Association of Ireland Teachers
British Royal Historical Society

Graduate attributes and transferrable skills you can develop at Trinity

You gain a wide range of skills and attributes while at College, through academic study, clubs and societies, voluntary work, student politics, work and other commitments. These are important to recognize as they inform your career decisions and are a critical ingredient in your applications for postgraduate study and jobs. Here are some skills you can gain :

1. Critical Thinking - The most fundamental part of a university education is learning to work on your own and to make independent judgments. You have to discover the information that you need to analyse complex questions and develop your ideas about them and to present your arguments clearly and persuasively.

2. Teamwork - Learning to work as part of a team is an important skill; sharing the workload, agreeing roles and working as a team to develop ideas, analyse information and present a coherent group argument.

3. Independent Research - You will have learnt how to use the library and other complex information resources and co-ordinate information from a wide variety of sources.

4. Logical argumentation - You will know how to bring together facts and arguments in order to answer a specific ques-

5. Time and project management - By working on assignments and studying for exams you will have developed the ability to revise and consolidate your work and know how to extract the essential points from a mass of information. You will also have learned how to manage your own time and to work under pressure of deadlines.

6. Verbal communication - You will know how to present your ideas orally and to contribute constructively to discussions.

7. Written communication - You will have had the opportunity to present your ideas in writing accurately and concisely, using convincing arguments which are based on solid evidence; responding flexibly to different types of questions and expressing your thoughts concisely; carrying out in-depth research on a specialised topic and develop the sustained writing skills needed.

8. Digital Skills - You will have the opportunity of developing your computer skills both from typing up your own essays and papers and from undertaking searches on the web & using databases.

9. Personal Development – You are managing the learning required for a degree and recognising the gaps in your understanding and ensuring that these are addressed in ways that best suit your learning style.

How can the Careers Service help me?

The Careers Advisory Service supports students in exploring their career options and connects students with employers. You can book an appointment with your careers consultant to help you deciding your next step in your career.

Login to MyCareer at www.tcd.ie/careers and book your appointment today.

Contact Us

Careers Service
2nd Floor, 7-9 South Leinster Street,
Trinity College, Dublin 2, D02 K104

Email: careers@tcd.ie
Website: www.tcd.ie/careers

www.facebook.com/Trinity.Careers.Service

www.twitter.com/TCDCareers