The Bursary Award

Major financial services and consultancy companies in the UK often target their recruitment efforts at Senior Fresh students by offering a ‘Spring Week’ internship

What is a Spring Week internship?
• Usually takes place in London in March/April
• Usually 1 – 2 weeks in length
• Students gain valuable experience and sectoral/industry insight

What is the Bursary Award?
• An award of €750 to support costs for the Spring Week, such as accommodation / transport / meals in London
Eligibility

• Open to Trinity Senior Fresh students of any discipline. JS/SS students who secure a legal spring week internship are also eligible to apply.

• Students must successfully secure a 2018 Spring Week internship with a professional services firm in London.

• Students must complete a short personal essay (500 words) outlining why they should be offered the bursary.

• Bursary awardees are then selected.

• Students must complete the internship and write a short 200 word reflective essay on the experience.
Vacancies

• To search for vacancies, log on to MyCareer (please register at www.tcd.ie/careers) and select “Spring Insight Programme” from the drop down menu

• Apply early! Many of the vacancies have a closing date of December/January each year
Application Process: 2017/18

• If you are successful in securing a Spring Week programme place, contact careers@tcd.ie
• You will then be asked to provide proof of the offer e.g. offer letter/email from the company
• Complete a short personal essay (500 words) outlining why you should be offered the bursary (n.b. essay guidelines will be provided)
• Selection panel select the bursary recipients
• You complete your internship, provide evidence of such and write a short 200 word reflective essay on your experience

• Please note that there is a limit of one bursary per student
