(JS)

Module Code	CLU33412
Module Name	Latin Independent Project B
ECTS Weighting	5 ECTS
Semester taught	Semester 2
Module Coordinators	Prof. Anna Chahoud, Prof. Monica Gale
Module Learning Outcomes with embedded Graduate Attributes	On successful completion of this module, students should be able to: LO1. Translate and analyse the prescribed text with attention to diction and style LO2. Discuss the literary, historical and cultural contexts in which the text was produced LO3. Evaluate the key critical approaches to the text and its genre, context, ideas and influence. LO4. Formulate an original and well-researched argument in oral presentations and in writing. LO5. Work effectively in small groups. LO6. Manage and time-manage an original project to its successful completion.
Module Content	This module will develop your skills as a critical reader of Latin texts, with guidance from your lecturer (five contact hours in alternate weeks). You will study authors not covered in the taught modules, e.g. contrasting Sallust's and Cicero's accounts of the 'Catiline war', or Ovid's fictional verse epistles (Heroides) and the 'real' prose letters of Pliny the Younger. This module is intended for Latin B students (beginners in Latin at entry).
Teaching and Learning Methods	In this module you will develop an original project based on the prescribed Latin text, which you will read and analyse both independently and in a team. You will receive guidance from the lecturer in the course of five contact hours in alternate weeks, as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) The lecturer will introduce the text, its themes and contexts, and indicate possible research avenues for your project;</li> <li>2) The lecturer will help you set up your project and assign tasks to the team;</li> <li>3-4) You will report on progress and problems</li> <li>5) You will give an oral presentation of your team's project.</li> </ol>
