

ECU3-3031: Important Points to Note

- Check programme requirements and choose courses/modules THIS WEEK
- Very good evaluations in last five years. Usually 80 to 100 students take module
- Visiting students, if not registered by start of Week 4, email me (johagan@tcd.ie) so that I can add name to email list for ECU3-3031
- Many visiting students take ECU3-3031: 30 to 35 usually, from US and several European countries, which adds greatly I feel to the module. Plus, outgoing Irish students. Development on and very similar to EC2020.
- Dedicated web site for ECU3-3031: <https://www.tcd.ie/Economics/staff/johagan/teaching.php>
- On this will be: lecture acetates, course hand-out, assessment hand-out (next week), and class timetable and allocations (next week). You need consult nothing else.

- Lectures not compulsory but if attending NO talking at lectures: to allow other students to listen and hear properly.
- Assessment ECU3-3031: 90-minute test in Week 10 (60%), essay due Tues after last day of term (40%). No Christmas or summer examinations.
- Classes in Weeks 6-8 (for test revision) and Weeks 13-14 (for essay preparation).
- I will assign people to classes later, when number of students known: Blackboard lists therefore do not apply.
- Avoid an F2 in any module in JS: cannot be compensated no matter what your other marks. For example: eleven 75s and one 30 means fail, while twelve 40s is a pass overall. Avoid a mark of less than 35 in any module, and of less than 40 in two modules. Not sure what system applies for visiting ECU3-3031 students.
- Many need an overall 2.2 this year but different though for TSM
- Average mark in this module around 58 (2.2), but about 45% get a 2.1 (60-69) and around 20% a 1st (70+)

- Full-year ECU3-3031 students taking TWO modules but one core book. Committing NOW to both modules.
- Acetates NOT lecture notes. If you cannot attend some lectures, make sure you know someone who can.
- Assessment hand-out the 'gospel'.
- Eight test questions will be on this and four essay topics (see later).
- Book for course
