
Adrian Byrne
75 Cedarwood Road, Glasnevin, Dublin 11, Ireland
Tel: +35318340152 Mobile: +353857213543
Email: ajbyrne@tcd.ie

Academic Objective

To attain a higher level of proficiency in an area specific to my degree by doing a taught masters

Education

Trinity College Dublin (2001–present)

I am currently undertaking a masters of science in economics in Trinity College Dublin

In 2005, I received a B.A. in Mathematics and Economics from Trinity College Dublin consisting of a 1.1 in Mathematics and a 2.1 in Economics

Before studying at Trinity, I was a student of Belvedere College, Dublin, from 1995 to 2001

Work Experience

Trinity College Dublin

October 2005–present

Job title: Teaching Assistant

Job description: Teaching 1st year students mathematics and statistics in tutorial classes and providing a office hour every week. Job involves homework and exam corrections and requires very good communication skills

Asbestos Consultancy Services Limited (Analytical Consultants)

January 2002–present

Job title: Analyst

Job description: Asbestos dust reassurance and clearance air monitoring in accordance with MDHS 39/4. Assistance during asbestos surveying in accordance with MDHS 100. Job often requires travel to many locations around Ireland

Gaelic Athletic Association, Croke Park

June 1999–present

Job Title: Stilesman

Job Description: Working in the ticket stiles. Job involves teamwork and good interpersonal skills

Private Maths Tutor

April 2002–present

Description: I give private tuition in maths to students from primary to secondary level.

Cunninghams Moving and Storage Company

June–August 2004

Job Description: Helping people move house all over San Francisco. Very hard labour requiring strength, stamina, concentration, teamwork, and good interpersonal skills

Voluntary Work

In December 2002, I participated in the Belvedere College “Sleep Out” in aid of the homeless.

St. Mary’s Orphanage for Boys, Kolkata (Calcutta)

November—December 1999

Job Description: Teaching literacy skills and organising co-curricular activities such as football matches, outings and variety performances.

During this visit to India, I also worked as a volunteer at one of St. Mother Theresa’s “houses for the dying” where I prepared meals and administered medicine to patients. Duties often extended to extra patient care.

The Little Flower Centre (Homeless shelter)

May—June 1999

Job Description: Preparation of evening meals and serving, stock taking and cleaning. Job required sensitivity, patience, understanding and resourcefulness (often in potentially dangerous situations).

Interests and Achievements

I was men’s captain of the Dublin University LTC (Lawn Tennis Club), Trinity College Dublin for 2004-05. As such, I was a candidate for a Trinity Foundation Award for services rendered to the club. I have won the plate in 2003, 2004, and 2005 at the Annual National Tennis Intervarsities. In August 2002, I participated in an ITF Futures tennis event in Scotland.

I have also won various events at both provincial and national level in table tennis, squash, and badminton.

In September 2003 I successfully climbed to the top of Mount Kilimanjaro (highest free-standing mountain in the world), Tanzania, Africa.

In my final year in Belvedere College, I was elected Class Captain and a prefect of the college.

I play the guitar and was once member of a band that played at numerous venues in Dublin. Further to this, I performed in a principal role in the Irish premier of Leonard Bernstein’s “Candide”, in the O’Reilly Theatre, Belvedere College, Dublin. I also sang in the Belvedere College choir for 2 years and recorded the album, “The Spirit of Belvedere”, in Windmill Lane Studios, Dublin.

Licenses and Certificates

I am certified by FAS (government body, recognized throughout the EU) as having attained proficiency in health and safety matters concerning construction work, on completing a health and safety awareness course (Safe Pass)

I have attained a proficiency certificate in air sampling and clearance testing of asbestos from the British Occupational Hygiene Society

I have a full driver’s licence

References

Michael Harrison — Dept. of Economics

Trinity College Dublin

Tel: +35316081946

Dr. Jacco Thijssen — Dept. of Economics

Trinity College Dublin

Tel: +35316081596