A selection of postgrad courses from around the world

A look at a sample from all seven universities and some of the institutes of technology and smaller colleges.

Postgraduate Options 3

PC McGuire

For every professional area imaginable, there is a postgraduate course that matches your particular skills and aspirations.

Maynooth University

Topcourses:
- Postgraduate Diploma in Computing
- MSc in Business Management
- MSc in Mechanical Engineering
- MSc in Computer Science
- MSc in International Relations

Spotlight on: Eoin Sheahan, Computing

Eoin Sheahan, a student in the Department of Computing at Maynooth University, says: "The Department of Computing is one of the largest in Ireland, with over 1,200 students enrolled in undergraduate and postgraduate courses. We offer a wide range of modules in areas such as software engineering, data analytics, and artificial intelligence. The Department is located in the heart of Dublin city, giving students easy access to a range of cultural and social activities. In addition, the Department has strong industry links, with many of our graduates going on to work for leading technology companies in the area. Overall, I would highly recommend Maynooth University for anyone looking to pursue a career in computing.""}

NUIGalway

Topcourses:
- MSc in Management and Marketing
- MSc in Computer Science
- MSc in Human Resources Management

Spotlight on: Aisling O'Dwyer, MSc in Management and Marketing

Aisling O'Dwyer, a student in the MSc in Management and Marketing at NUIGalway, says: "The MSc in Management and Marketing is a very hands-on course, which gives you a lot of practical experience in the field. The course is well-structured and well-organised, and the lecturers are very knowledgeable and supportive. Overall, I would highly recommend this course to anyone looking to pursue a career in management or marketing.""}

DCU

Topcourses:
- MSc in Financial Risk Management
- MSc in Human Resources Management
- MSc in International Management

Spotlight on: Mark O'Brien, MSc in Financial Risk Management

Mark O'Brien, a student in the MSc in Financial Risk Management at DCU, says: "The course is very challenging, but it is also very rewarding. The lecturers are very knowledgeable and supportive, and the course gives you a lot of practical experience in the field. Overall, I would highly recommend this course to anyone looking to pursue a career in financial risk management.""}

University of Limerick

Topcourses:
- MSc in Social Work
- MSc in Public Health
- MSc in Social Sciences

Spotlight on: Catherine O'Brien, MSc in Social Work

Catherine O'Brien, a student in the MSc in Social Work at University of Limerick, says: "The course is very challenging, but it is also very rewarding. The lecturers are very knowledgeable and supportive, and the course gives you a lot of practical experience in the field. Overall, I would highly recommend this course to anyone looking to pursue a career in social work.""}

UCD

Topcourses:
- MSc in Food Science and Technology
- MSc in Business and Society
- MSc in International Relations

Spotlight on: Sarah Murphy, MSc in Food Science and Technology

Sarah Murphy, a student in the MSc in Food Science and Technology at UCD, says: "The course is very challenging, but it is also very rewarding. The lecturers are very knowledgeable and supportive, and the course gives you a lot of practical experience in the field. Overall, I would highly recommend this course to anyone looking to pursue a career in food science and technology.""}

Trinity College Dublin

Topcourses:
- MSc in Finance
- MSc in International Business
- MSc in International Relations

Spotlight on: Jack O'Brien, MSc in Finance

Jack O'Brien, a student in the MSc in Finance at Trinity College Dublin, says: "The course is very challenging, but it is also very rewarding. The lecturers are very knowledgeable and supportive, and the course gives you a lot of practical experience in the field. Overall, I would highly recommend this course to anyone looking to pursue a career in finance.""}

Business Insight: Salary

According to the website of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development, the average salary for a graduate in Ireland in 2021 was €36,880. However, this can vary significantly depending on the sector, industry, and level of experience.

Comparison page

Postgraduate Options 3