Dublin University Far Eastern Mission
Hong Kong July 2019:

Teaching secondary school students at St Philip’s Church. The ages of students taught ranged from as young as six years old up to the age of thirteen years old.

A lot of time was spent in St. Philip’s Church, as well as in surrounding primary schools in the New Territories.

Meeting Bishop Andrew Chan, bishop of West Kowloon.

Dim Sum with Reverend Cindy Kwok. The mission works closely with Revd Cindy and with members of her parish at St. Philip’s.
Teaching at S K H Tin Shui Wai Ling Oi Primary School. We had the wonderful experience of teaching a great number of primary school students.

The staff and students at the primary school were very friendly and accommodating, even performing a show for us with their school orchestra.

Selfie to celebrate the end of class!
Dim Sum with parishioners after Sunday service. We had many opportunities to try local delicacies and experience different aspects of Hong Kong thanks to the friendliness of members of the Church.

Learning about Irish traditions in St Philip’s Church. We had the opportunity to tell locals about life in Ireland, and learn about Hong Kong customs in return.

We had time to explore Hong Kong and do plenty of sight-seeing.
