Public Poetry Masterclass by Colette Bryce

Submissions are invited for places

Masterclass:

Saturday 3rd June

10am to 3pm

Trinity Oscar Wilde Centre

The School of English at Trinity College Dublin is offering a free poetry masterclass with its current Arts Council of Ireland Writer Fellow, Colette Bryce.

To apply, email a sample of two poems to wilde@tcd.ie, (subject line Poetry Masterclass) by 5pm, Friday 26th May. Your submission need not be finished work – better, indeed, that it is a recent work in progress as discussion of participants' work will form the second part of the day. Colette Bryce will contact the successful applicants with further details.

Colette Bryce has published four poetry collections, including The Full Indian Rope Trick (2004) and The Whole & Rain-domed Universe (2014), and her Selected Poems will be published by Picador this spring. She received the Cholmondeley Award in 2010.
