TCD School of English Staff Postgraduate Seminars Hilary 2020

Áras an Phiarsaigh AP 0.09, @5pm

January 30th
Dr George Legg (King’s College London): “From Craigavon to Internment: Norther Ireland and the Politics of Boredom.”

13th February
Orlaith Darling (TCD): “The land’ll be here long after we’re dead and gone”: Ageing masculinity and the land in recent Irish short fiction.”

Taylor Follet (TCD): “I am officially a mad housewife: Limitations and Possibilities in Anne Enright’s The Gathering.”

27th February
Dr Clare Hutton (Loughborough University): “Literary History of the Digital Era.”

12th March
Melih Levi (Stanford University): “Syllabic Gestures: Thom Gunne and the Plain Style.”

Janice Deitner (TCD): “Dead Shirley?: The Intersection of Shirley Jackson and (Feminist) Science Fiction.”

26th March
Aino Haataja (Abo Akademi University): “Maria Edgeworth and a literature of worldliness.”

Dylan Thursfield (TCD): “I, of whom I know nothing, I know my eyes are open, because of the tears that pour from them unceasingly: Cruelty in Samuel Beckett’s works.”

Image design by Dearbhaile Houston, 2018.