

Department of French TJH ERASMUS 2022-2023 Application Form

Exchanges in the Department of French are open to current Senior Fresh students who wish to go abroad in their Junior Sophister year 2022-23 to one of College's partner universities. TJH students can go abroad through either of their TJH subjects. The Department of French has Erasmus partnerships with Bordeaux-Montaigne, Université de Genève, Lyon-Lumière, Orléans, and Paris 3-Sorbonne Nouvelle, as well as new partnerships with Université Grenoble Alpes, Sorbonne Université (F PARIS468), Université de Poitiers, Université Rennes 2, and Université Toulouse - Jean Jaurès.

(*Students of Irish are required to apply to Orléans as their first choice).

The following conditions must be met in order to go abroad:

- You must meet the minimum grade requirement in French and in your other TJH subject to be eligible for an exchange through either department.
- The grade requirements for French are a 2.2 in FRU22001 and a 2.2 overall in French at the MT exams in 2022.
- You must have permission from both departments to go abroad irrespective of which department you are going through.
- If you meet the grade requirements but the exchange you have chosen is oversubscribed, places will be attributed on the basis of the best results for French overall at the MT exams in 2022.

The deadline for applications is Wednesday 1st February 2023 at 12 noon. Please complete the form and return it to Florence Signorini by email (fsgnorni@tcd.ie)
