

The Herspanic Week Lecture

Re-Framing the Latina Body in Contemporary Latina Visual Culture

Dr Catherine Leen (Maynooth University)

Presented by DU Hispanic Society and Trinity College Dublin Department of Hispanic Studies

As part of Trinity
College Dublin
International
Women's Week

5 March 2018
7:30pm

Robert Emmet Theatre,
2037, Arts Building,
Trinity College Dublin

Dr Catherine Leen, Senior Lecturer, is Head of Spanish and Latin American Studies at Maynooth University – her research centres on Mexican and Chicana/o literature and cinema, and Argentine and Paraguayan visual culture and literature. In 2008 she received a Fullbright Scholarship to conduct research at the Chicana/o Centre at the University of California, Santa Barbara. Her most recent publication explores the relevance of Chicana/o Studies outside the United States. Entitled International Perspectives on Chicana/o Culture: "This World is My Place," it is coedited by Dr Niamh Thornton (Routledge, 2014). She is currently completing a monograph on Latina/o filmmakers and Mexico.