1.3 Key Locations

Department Office

The School office is based in Room 5038, which is located on the fifth floor of the Arts Building.

Blackboard

Blackboard is the College online learning environment where students can access their study material like lecture notes and discussion forums. The use of Blackboard varies from module to module, and individual lecturers will speak to you about the requirements for their module. In order to access a module on Blackboard you should be registered to the module by your programme administrator. Blackboard can be accessed via the following link:

<https://tcd.blackboard.com/webapps/login/>

Student Portal

The my.tcd.ie portal allows students to view their own central student record containing all relevant information related to the course for which you are registered. To access the system, you will need your College username and network password.

Email

All official email correspondence will be sent to Trinity email addresses only. You should check your email on a regular basis. When emailing the Department office, students should always include their TCD Student ID Number.

1.4 Key Dates

Please refer to the Academic Year Structure for key dates in the 2021-22 academic year.

1.5 Timetable

Lecture timetables are published to student portal (my.tcd.ie) at least one week before the beginning of the academic year. Once a student is registered, they can view their timetable on their student portal. The onus is on students to check their timetable at regular intervals to identify any changes to venues or lecture times. It is imperative that students, at the beginning of the academic year, check for any clashing of modules that may be occurring, not just in Semester 1, but through into the Semester 2. Please contact your programme administrator if you have any clashes.

1.6 Study Abroad/Erasmus

The Department of Hispanic Studies offers Junior Sophister students a variety of opportunities to study abroad. TJH students on a Single Honours pathway must complete a compulsory year abroad. Students on a Joint Honours pathway or those majoring in Spanish may spend either one semester or a full year abroad. All students interested in applying to study abroad should first consult the TJH Regulations for Study Abroad. It is important to note that marks achieved abroad count towards the final degree result.

If you are interested in participating in an Erasmus programme please consult Dr Katerina García (kgarcia@tcd.ie), Erasmus Study Abroad Co-ordinator for Spanish. Students interested in Non-Eu exchanges should consult Dr Ciara O'Hagan (cohagan@tcd.ie), Non-EU Study Abroad Co-ordinator. For more information on exchange opportunities in Spanish, please consult the Study Abroad section of the departmental website. More general information is also available on the College website at Outbound - Study - Trinity College Dublin \(tcd.ie\).

Detailed information concerning learning outcomes as well as the content, objectives, required reading, bibliographies and assessment patterns for each module can be found on your portal by clicking on 'Course and Module' and then 'View Course and Module Descriptive Information'.

2.7 Coursework Requirements

The Department of Hispanic Studies uses a variety of modes of assessment. Detailed information concerning the assessment and reassessment of modules is included in module descriptors available through the student portal. Your instructor will also provide details of submission dates for assessed coursework and oral presentations at the beginning of each term. If you have any questions regarding the assessment arrangements for a specific module, you should contact your module instructor.

Students are required to submit all essays through Turnitin on Blackboard. For guidelines on what Turnitin is and how to use it, please consult the information available on the College website at the following link: <https://www.tcd.ie/CAPSL/resources/Turnitin/>. All essays must also be accompanied by a signed coversheet. A copy of this coversheet can be downloaded here. Essays must adhere to a recognised referencing system. Your module instructor will inform you if a specific referencing system is to be used. It is essential that all coursework is submitted on time.

Essays submitted after the due date without permission will be subject to the penalties set out in the School handbook. Please note that these penalties have been agreed and are applied throughout the School of Languages, Literatures and Cultural Studies.

Extensions may be granted only where there is a medical certificate or evidence of other mitigating circumstances. Evidence must be presented through your Tutor to the Head of Department. It is each student's personal responsibility to comply with the assessment requirements and submission.

PRESENTATION OF ESSAYS

1. The essay must engage with the theme of the essay question: if a question is being asked then that question must be answered; if it asks for discussion on topic A, the essay cannot be about topic B.

2. Make sure you write grammatical English sentences. Capitalize and punctuate properly. Marks will be lost for poor presentation and expression. Pay special attention to the possessive apostrophe, and also distinguish between "it's" as an abbreviation for 'it is' and 'its' as a possessive adjective (I have given the cat its dinner).

3. Writing in note form, or using conversational abbreviations of ordinary English or Spanish words, are not acceptable (e.g., do not write "can't" for cannot/can not).

4. When typing in Spanish, please ensure that you insert all Spanish accents and other orthographical signs.

5. A change of theme or a new stage in the argument demands a new paragraph. Each paragraph should develop, expand, clarify or exemplify your argument(s). While paragraphs should not be excessively long, avoid one-sentence paragraphs.

6. Number all pages.

7. Italicize the titles of books and complete works like plays, stories, novels and (usually) poems: e.g. La vida es sueño, Bodas de sangre, Don Quijote. Do not use inverted commas for the titles of extended written works. Note that in Spanish book titles, only the first letter is capitalized, except for proper names and words that always have a capital letter, as for example in the following novels: Cinco horas con Mario, and Su único hijo.

8. Titles of chapters, articles in periodicals, essays in collections (and sometimes shorter poems) are given in quotation marks: for example, 'The Dehumanisation of Lorca's Poeta en Nueva York'. The name of the periodical is italicized, and identified thus: Bulletin of Hispanic Studies, 21 (2001), pp. 150-151 – that is, vol. no., (year), page reference(s).

9. QUOTATIONS from a literary work should be identified: number or line-numbers of poem; chapter and page-number of novel or play. Indicate which edition you are using. Subsequent references can be put in your text in brackets and need not be relegated to footnotes or endnotes. Avoid a string of footnotes or endnotes referring only to the work that you are chiefly discussing. Quotations of less than four lines should be run on in the text. This includes poetry, the lines of which are then separated by forward slashes. Longer quotations (over about 40 words), whether in verse or prose, are given their own lines of text, and should be indented and single spaced without single inverted commas. Your quotations should make sense either as part of your own sentence or as complete sentences in their own right.

10. FOOTNOTE/ENDNOTE numbers should be placed at the end of a sentence after the punctuation.

11. If you use someone else's ideas – whether quoted or paraphrased – you must attribute the borrowing to the author. To not do so constitutes plagiarism. A reference in the Bibliography is not enough. Your indebtedness to the writer must be acknowledged at the point of borrowing. You can use some of the standard conventions to attribute borrowings to an author; for example:

According to F. Caudet ... (p. 5); Paul Preston argues that ... (p. 25); As J. H. Elliot points out, ... (p. 89).

12. Even if you do not incorporate quotations from or references to books or articles in the body of your essay, you must, on a separate page entitled Bibliography, give a list of the sources you have used in the preparation of the essay.

13. You must follow the same conventions and appropriate referencing when accessing material on the web, and in brackets add the date you accessed the website; for example, <http://www.tcd.ie/Local/> [accessed 1 January 2022].

14. Basic principles: be clear and consistent; in general, it is sound practice to let the introduction briefly outline what you intend to deal with, discuss, describe etc.; the body of the essay should fulfill the expectations prompted by the introduction; the essay should be rounded off with a brief conclusion of the arguments and themes.

2.7.1 Plagiarism

Plagiarism is interpreted by the University as 'the act of presenting the work or ideas of others as one's own, without due acknowledgement. Plagiarism can arise from deliberate actions and also through careless thinking and/or methodology. The offence lies not in the attitude or intention of the perpetrator, but in the action and in its consequences. It is the responsibility of the author of any work to ensure that he/she does not commit plagiarism. Plagiarism is considered to be academically fraudulent, and an offence against academic integrity that is subject to the disciplinary procedures of the University' (College Calendar, Part II, General Regulations, § 95).

To ensure that you have a clear understanding of what plagiarism is, how Trinity deals with cases of plagiarism, and how to avoid it we ask you to take the following steps:

2.8 Marking Scale

|----------------------------|-------------------|
| 70-100 I (First) | 40-49 III (Third) |
| 60-69 II.I (Upper Second) | 30-39 F1 (Fail) |
| 50-59 II.II (Lower Second) | 0-29 F2 (Fail) |

First (excellent)

Written work will demonstrate consistent evidence of: an excellent knowledge and understanding of appropriate texts and critical engagement with scholarship/criticism/theory; highly skillful deployment of a wide range of relevant information in a well-crafted structure; arguments that manifest independent/original thought; critical evaluative ability with a keen awareness of key issues; exemplary use of accepted scholarly conventions relating to the attribution of sources, footnoting, and bibliography; an exceptional ability to express ideas cogently in written English.

Upper Second (very good)

Written work will show consistent evidence of: a very good knowledge and understanding of appropriate texts and scholarship/criticism/theory; a notable ability to present relevant information in a clear and well thought out structure; arguments that show a very good degree of evaluative thought; competent use of accepted scholarly conventions relating to the attribution of sources, footnoting, and bibliography; an extremely good command of written English.

Lower Second (good)

Written work will give consistent evidence of: a competent knowledge and understanding of relevant texts and scholarship/criticism/theory; engagement with the question being asked; good overall organization of ideas; proper use of scholarly conventions relating to the integration and attribution of sources, footnoting, and bibliography; a good command of written English, with accuracy in grammar and spelling, and an appropriately academic lexical range.

Third (acceptable)

Written work will normally give evidence of: competence in relation to relevant texts and scholarship/criticism/theory; an approach to the question being asked which is not merely superficial/derivative/uncritical; no more than a minor tendency to repetition and description; awareness of scholarly conventions concerning the proper integration and attribution of sources, footnoting, and bibliography; appropriate grammar, spelling, and lexical range.

Fail I (not acceptable)

Written work in the F1 range will normally show only a superficial knowledge of the topic and/or fail to display acceptable competence in constructing an answer to the question posed; it will be disjointed and derivative, with an unclear structure; it will show difficulty in following its own arguments. Even work which otherwise reveals basic competence may fall into the F1 category for the following deficiencies: lack of in-depth engagement with the texts; failure to observe the scholarly conventions concerning the proper integration and attribution of sources, footnoting, and bibliography; an accumulation of errors in grammar/spelling/vocabulary.

Fail II (inadequate)

Written work in the F2 range will reveal an inadequate knowledge of the topic, and/or an inability to display basic competence in constructing an answer to the question posed. Such work is also most likely to give more serious evidence of the weaknesses noted under F1.

2.9 Capstone Project

The Capstone project in the Department of Hispanic Studies is an independent research project on a topic chosen in consultation with a departmental staff member who will act as supervisor. It is assessed by an extended essay of 6,000-8,000 words, including all notes, references and bibliography; which answers an original research question or develops an original thesis; and which contains an authoritative critical bibliography. Detailed guidelines on the Capstone project will be circulated to students during the Trinity term of their JS year.

Details of College Policies and Procedures with regards to research guidelines and ethical practices are included the School Handbook.
