JOINT HONORS ENTRY ROUTE Pathways

A number of pathway options are available to students taking the History of Art and Architecture through the joint honors entry route, which lead to one or more exit routes.

Each pathway has a required number of credits in each subject, and Trinity Electives/Open Modules where applicable.

Pathway options may be restricted depending on credits achieved in each subject in the previous year(s).

PATHWAYS: Students will be required to choose their pathway at the end of their Junior Freshman year.

EXIT ROUTES: Students are required to choose their exit route at the end of their Senior Freshman year.

Students opting for a 'major with minor' degree will have a further choice between two pathways in their junior sophomore year.

Students must take a balanced ECTS credit load across both semesters

Key: courses listed above line = semester 1, below the line semester 2. White modules = mandatory, yellow modules = optional. Modules listed in italics to be confirmed
