GENERAL COURSE INFORMATION

1.1 Introduction

Welcome to the Department of Italian in Trinity College Dublin. We are a friendly and small department where we hope you will feel at home. You are joining a historic Department. We have one of the oldest traditions in Italian studies in the world. Italian has been taught here since 1776. Some very significant people have studied Italian in Trinity before you: the first President of Ireland, Douglas Hyde, who won the prize in Italian in 1884; playwright and Nobel prize winner Samuel Beckett, who studied Italian and French in the 1920s; the notable intellectual Walter Starkie, Professor of Spanish and Italian. Our website is <http://www.tcd.ie/italian/>

1.6 Study Abroad in Italy: Erasmus, Year Abroad, Summer in Italy

CONTACTS FOR GUIDANCE:

- Dr Cecilia Brioni: brionic@tcd.ie

INTRODUCTION

A year, or semester studying abroad is one of the highlights of the Trinity experience. Immersing yourself in Italian language, culture, life (and sunshine!) is a valuable way of achieving fluency and will open your world. We encourage you to spend as much time in Italy as you can.

All TJH students must spend at least two months in Italy before taking their final examinations.

There are a few ways to achieve this:

1. An Erasmus/Study Abroad exchange (in your third year only) key
2. A Year 'off-books' working and living in Italy before your final year
3. A non-Erasmus year at the University of Pavia, funded by one of our bursaries (see below)
4. Taking a summer in Italy

All ES/MEELC must spend the Junior Sophister year abroad. This is an integral and required part of the European Studies programme. Marks derived from work assessed at your exchange university during the Junior Sophister year abroad enable you to progress to the Senior Sophister year.

ERASMUS EXCHANGES (TJH/ES/MEELC)

Outgoing Erasmus Students:

- Cannot take modules taught in English in their host university;
- Cannot obtain credits from Italian Language modules, unless:
 - they are on a new Minors pathway;
 - they are taking Italian modules in a non-Italian university (eg in France, Spain or Germany)

PLEASE NOTE THAT NO ITALIAN UNIVERSITIES OFFER ACADEMIC MODULES ON ITALIAN LANGUAGE. STUDENTS ARE ASKED TO COVER THIS ESSENTIAL ASPECT ENROLLING IN APPROPRIATE ITALIAN COURSES FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS ORGANIZED BY THE CLA OR CLI (LANGUAGE CENTRE) OF EACH UNIVERSITY. ALL THESE COURSES HAVE NEITHER MARKS NOR CREDITS.

How to apply:

You must be in Senior Fresh and have at least 56% (separately) in each of your MT 2022 Language Test in written and oral Italian to apply. Be aware that we have always to respect the rules for Outgoing Erasmus applied by your other Department. There must be suitable courses available at the Italian university for you to pursue both subjects you study. Exams must be passed in the host universities, failure in doing so would cause you to repeat the JS year at TCD.

For details click on the TCD entry:

- <https://www.tcd.ie/study/study-abroad/outbound/options>
- See the menu on your left in your screen, click Outbound and go ahead.

The steps you need to follow:

STEP 1:

By 15th January 2023 TJH students should send Dr Cecilia Brioni (brionic@tcd.ie) an email with the following requirements:

- a. name
- b. student number
- c. email address
- d. TCD JH pathway: option A or option B (specify your minor and major language, / current year and student status (ie: 2022-2023, SF)
- e. results for both your MT 2022 language tests in written and oral Italian
- f. your end-of-year mark in both your subjects in 2021-2022
- g. your three favourite Italian host universities in order of preference* specify if you will go on Erasmus for a full-academic year or one term (please state: MT or HT) according to your pathway. [*a meritocratic principle will be applied with first choices going to students with the highest results]

Please note:

TJH students confirm the pathway for their JS & SS year at the end of SF year – they cannot change their pathway between JS and SS year.

There are two Major with Minor* pathway options.

- Option A means student continue their study of the Minor into SS year.
- Option B means students finish their study of the Minor subject in JS year. In this case it would only be possible to go on exchange in the 1st semester. You cannot go on Erasmus/Study abroad exchange for a full year or in HT. Not all subjects can facilitate this option and department study abroad coordinators will provide this information to students. If your subjects can facilitate such an exchange, please contact joint.honours@tcd.ie for information on what requirements you will need to meet.

*Please note that normally you will apply to do Erasmus through your Major subject.

The following was agreed in 2021 and provides more details on TJH options: https://www.tcd.ie/tjh/assets/pdf/tjh_student_advice_erasmus_21-22.pdf

STEP 2

Your Erasmus coordinator - after having checked that all the above requirements are ok -, will send a template doc with all Erasmus Outgoing nominations to our Erasmus Trinity Office by the official mid-February deadline.

STEP 3

The Erasmus Trinity Office will proceed in contacting your Italian University.

STEP 4

A provisional offer will be made to you in late Hilary term and confirmed when you get your exam results in late May (if you fail you are not allowed to go Erasmus).

STEP 5

A few days after your final exam results come out, the Italian Universities will contact you and you should then register with them asap.

Do not register online earlier to avoid unnecessary complications that may jeopardize your official registration and cause not to be accepted by the host university.

STEP 6

Once you will have enrolled in the host university you should carefully fill up your Learning Agreement (LA) and send it electronically - saved in WORD format - to both your TCD and Italian Erasmus coordinators in order for them both to sign it.

Please ensure that you have in right number of ECT credits for Italian depending on your pathway:
https://www.tcd.ie/tjh/assets/pdf/tjh_student_advice_erasmus_21-22.pdf

Please note: The TCD ERASMUS TEAM will send the OLS (Online Linguistic Support) test to all Erasmus students in due course.

Reminder: You must pass your exams in your host University. In the case of an exam fail, students are required to re-sit the exam in the host universities. If students do not return with the required number of credits in both subjects, they will repeat their full year in Trinity.

ERASMUS FOR EUROPEAN STUDIES AND MEELC

Before applying for Erasmus exchange, please consult the European Studies/MEELC Handbook 2021-2022

For ES/MEELC students, we will have places available at the following Universities:

I FIRENZE01 Università degli Studi di Firenze	4 full year places
I MILANO01 Università di Milano	6 full year places
I PAVIA01 Università di Pavia	4 full year places

I SIENA01 Università di Siena	2 full year places
I TRENTO01 Università degli Studi di Trento	3 full year places

The Erasmus European Studies Office and Trinity Erasmus Office will confirm availability.

Our steps:

STEP 1

By 15th January 2023 you should send the European Studies Office (EUROSTDS@tcd.ie), cc-ing Dr Cecilia Brioni (brionic@tcd.ie), an email with the following requirements: name / student number / email address / TCD course / current year and student status (ie: 2022-2023, SF) / rank the three Italian host universities in terms of preference (we will do our best to accommodate you in your no.1 preference, but this depends on number of places available for next year. A meritocratic principle will be applied with first choices going to students with the highest results).

STEP 2

Your Erasmus coordinator - after having checked that all the above requirements are ok - will send a template doc with all Erasmus Outgoing nominations to our Erasmus Trinity Office by the official deadline.

STEP 3

The Erasmus Trinity Office will proceed in contacting your Italian University.

STEP 4

A provisional offer will be made to you in late Hilary term.

STEP 5

The Italian Universities will contact you and you should then register with them asap.

STEP 6

Once you will have enrolled in the host university you should carefully fill up your Learning Agreement (LA) and electronically send it to both your TCD and Italian Erasmus coordinators in order for them both to sign it.

STEP 7

Please ensure that you have in total 45 ECT credits at a minimum. We strongly encourage you to register for 60 credits so that you will have enough credits should you fail a module.

Students must obtain at least 45 ECTS, or equivalent, studied through their major language during their year abroad. The modules chosen must normally be from disciplines of the European Studies programme (e.g. History of Ideas, History, Political Science, Economics and Sociology). If this standard of 45 ECTS is not achieved they must repeat examinations in the supplementary sessions, as determined by their host university. If they fail, they may be permitted to repeat the Junior Sophister year in Trinity, paying full fees. It is strongly recommended that students choose to take more than 45 ECTS.

1. TJH only: YEAR WORKING / LIVING IN ITALY (off books)

Many students in Italian take a full year in Italy before starting the fourth year. They work or live there. This is a year off books. With careful planning it can be a fantastic experience year for improving your Italian and immersing yourself in the Italian life and culture. It provides a perfect opportunity for a total and leisurely revision of your literature course. It helps you to be more independent. It may kick-start a career, for those who use it to work in Italy. How to go off books: <https://www.tcd.ie/seniortutor/tutors/offbooks/>

2. TJH only: BURSARY TO STUDY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF PAVIA (OFF BOOKS EXCHANGE, NON-ERASMUS)

JS and PGs interested in this exchange for the academic year 2023-2024 are invited to apply to Dr Cecilia Brioni by the start of March 2023. You must have minimum an upper II.2 in both Italian JS and the second subject and intend to take a year off books before proceeding to SS in Italian. According to the terms of this bursary, you will have fees waived and will have free accommodation in a college of the University of Pavia. You will spend the year working on Italian language, attending literary and cultural courses relevant to the TCD Italian programme, and preparing the Senior Sophister Italian dissertation. The University of Pavia may require that some examinations be taken at the end of the year. Interested candidates should apply in writing to Dr Brioni, stating their name, address, e-mail, phone number, first and second subject, marks obtained, and a short passage about why they would like to intercalate a year of study in Italy under this exchange.

3. Summer Abroad

The summer holidays provide a great opportunity to spend time in Italy and immerse oneself in the language.

You may decide to look for a job in the hospitality sector, as an au-pair, teaching English to children in summer camps, working on an organic farm, just to mention a few possibilities.

You may also decide to take a language course to consolidate and deepen your knowledge of and ability to understand and use Italian, as well as to engage in social and cultural activities and make more friends from all over the world. We provide guidance in choosing a language school. Please contact Silvia Bertoni (sbertoni@tcd.ie) if you need such advice.

2.7 Coursework Requirements

Assessment, examination arrangements, and guidance can be found on Blackboard, under each individual module.

The School Handbook includes details of College's Plagiarism Policy as well as links to the Library Guides on avoiding plagiarism and the declaration text used for submitting assignments. The School also has a policy on the late submission of coursework (see p. 20).

Our policy on plagiarism: the Programme Lead will deal with Level 1 Plagiarism and the Head of Department of Italian will oversee the process for Level 2 Plagiarism.

2.8 Marking Scale

70-100 I (First)

60-69 II.I (Upper Second)

50-59 II.II (Lower Second)

40-49 III (Third)

30-39 F1 (Fail)

0-29 F2 (Fail)

First (excellent)

Written work will demonstrate consistent evidence of: an excellent knowledge and understanding of appropriate texts and critical engagement with scholarship/criticism/theory; highly skillful deployment of a wide range of relevant information in a well-crafted structure; arguments that manifest independent/original thought; critical evaluative ability with a keen awareness of key issues; exemplary use of accepted scholarly conventions relating to the attribution of sources, footnoting, and bibliography; an exceptional ability to express ideas cogently in written English.

Upper Second (very good)

Written work will show consistent evidence of: a very good knowledge and understanding of appropriate texts and scholarship/criticism/theory; a notable ability to present relevant information in a clear and well thought out structure; arguments that show a very good degree of evaluative thought; competent use of accepted scholarly conventions relating to the attribution of sources, footnoting, and bibliography; an extremely good command of written English.

Lower Second (good)

Written work will give consistent evidence of: a competent knowledge and understanding of relevant texts and scholarship/criticism/theory; engagement with the question being asked; good overall organization of ideas; proper use of scholarly conventions relating to the integration and attribution of sources, footnoting, and bibliography; a good command of written English, with accuracy in grammar and spelling, and an appropriately academic lexical range.

Third (acceptable)

Written work will normally give evidence of: competence in relation to relevant texts and scholarship/criticism/theory; an approach to the question being asked which is not merely superficial/derivative/uncritical; no more than a minor tendency to repetition and description; awareness of scholarly conventions concerning the proper integration and attribution of sources, footnoting, and bibliography; appropriate grammar, spelling, and lexical range.

Fail I (not acceptable)

Written work in the F1 range will normally show only a superficial knowledge of the topic and/or fail to display acceptable competence in constructing an answer to the question posed; it will be disjointed and derivative, with an unclear structure; it will show difficulty in following its own arguments. Even work which otherwise reveals basic competence may fall into the F1 category for the following deficiencies: lack of in-depth engagement with the texts; failure to observe the scholarly conventions concerning the proper integration and attribution of sources, footnoting, and bibliography; an accumulation of errors in grammar/spelling/vocabulary.

Fail II (inadequate)

Written work in the F2 range will reveal an inadequate knowledge of the topic, and/or an inability to display basic competence in constructing an answer to the question posed. Such work is also most likely to give more serious evidence of the weaknesses noted under F1.

There are penalties for late submission of written coursework without an approved extension or acceptable explanation (e.g. Medical Certificate):

- Up to two weeks' lateness incurs a deduction of 2% per day.
- After 2 weeks 0 will be awarded.

UNDELIVERED WORK

Mark for assignment not done during the year: 0%.

If you are unable to meet a deadline you should inform the module coordinator in advance. Extensions for submission of work must be sought in advance of the deadline. In exceptional circumstances, extensions of deadlines may be granted. It is the student's responsibility to obtain from the staff member involved a written note specifying the new delivery deadline.

ABSENCE AT TESTS

ESSENTIAL: Please save the dates for your tests, which are announced at the beginning of the academic year. If you miss a test, you will be marked 'zero', unless you can provide a medical certificate or evidence of other grave cause. If you provide proof of absence, the weight of the remaining components in your continuous assessment will then be recalculated accordingly.

KEEPING COPIES OF WORK SUBMITTED

While the Department takes all reasonable care of submitted materials, it is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of all work submitted, and to produce this copy if required. This applies particularly to work done in the third and fourth years, as this work is made available to the external examiner in assessing the student's final degree result.

CHEATING AND PLAGIARISM

In Italian we take plagiarism seriously. It is important to avoid communicating other people's ideas or words as if they were your own. This is regarded as a very serious offence. We follow the College rules: <http://tcd-ie.libguides.com/plagiarism>. We detect plagiarism using automatic plagiarism detection software. Please ensure that you avoid plagiarism.

2.9 Capstone Project ITU44CPY (for Senior Sophisters)

Module Description

A distinctive cultural element in the final year is the preparation of an independent degree dissertation of 12,000 words (approx. 40 pages), excluding Footnotes, Bibliography, Appendix(es). The dissertation is normally written in English. You must choose the topic by June 2022, in the summer between the JS and SS years, as preparatory reading should be done during the vacation. Send an indicative title, rough abstract of your dissertation, the proposed contents by chapter, aims and scope of the dissertation, initial reference list, by 11th October 2022. The dissertation is most successful when the topic focuses on a specific problem arising out of a student's own interests and is proposed by the student. We expect that a substantial proportion of the material they use will be Italian-related material. Members of staff are available to discuss possible topics and help to focus ideas. If you have a favourite genre and/or period, discuss this and obtain guidance towards some author or feature that will capture your interest. The sooner this discussion is begun the better. The title is subject to approval by the Department. The range of topics is wide even though, of course, only topics for which a supervisor is available will be approved. Consult your course co-ordinator initially about this, and then keep in touch with the supervisor assigned to you. Write a preliminary outline of your argument, then organize your work into chapters. Hand in drafts of individual chapters and then a draft of the entire work. The first complete draft of a dissertation must be submitted to the Department by Friday 3rd February 2023. After corrections following the supervisor's comments, the final version, properly typed and corrected in every detail, must be submitted by Friday 3rd March 2023.

In a dissertation, points must be illustrated clearly, supported by adequate reference to primary and secondary sources, and by a running argument including your motivated viewpoint. Check that each section is really part of your argument. Always point out exactly where you're going. Support your ideas by making appropriate reference to primary texts. Mention in brackets the abbreviated titles and page numbers from these texts each time you quote from them. An initial footnote should indicate what edition you are using or refer to the bibliography of your dissertation. Scan the scholarly books and articles on your title-subject and texts, looking for facts and arguments to throw light on your subject. Use them to help you define your terms, and to come to grips with the texts themselves. Quote where it helps your argument (even by contrast or disagreement). Acknowledge critical borrowings by author, work and page in the footnotes.

The organization and presentation of your work are also very important. The proper use and acknowledgement of critical material is essential. Quotations must be accurately cited. Follow conventions of presentation as in the MHRA Style Book, available online at <http://www.mhra.org.uk/pdf/MHRA-Style-Guide-3rd-Edn.pdf>. This publication includes also rules on how to present a bibliography. The basic rules in this respect are to indicate name and surname of author, title of work, name of journal, number of issue, year of publication, and, in case of books, place of edition and name of publisher. Titles of articles in journals and chapters from books are in inverted commas, whereas titles of books are in italics. Other style sheets may be used according to personal preference – e.g. Harvard sheet or Chicago sheet. Proof-reading must be precise. The dissertation must be written in clear and accurate English, correctly punctuated, without grammatical errors and with precise use of vocabulary. You can drop as much as an entire class in your result (e.g. from II.1 to II.2, or from II.2 to III) for poor presentation.

Details of College Policies and Procedures with regards to research guidelines and ethical practices are included the School Handbook.
