Who the course is intended for (prior knowledge expressed using Common European Framework Reference for Languages (CEFR) levels)	This course is aimed at students who have completed the Lower Intermediate Croatian course. Otherwise a placement test will be required.
Course content
Language awareness Cultural awareness Topics & themes	Teaching will use the communicative approach. Lectures will enable students to acquire communicative, grammatical and cultural competences. Their topics will be presented through contemporary authentic texts. The Upper Intermediate level includes the understanding of topics (listening, reading), the enrichment of vocabulary (phraseology, lexemes, collocations), speaking acts in different situations, repeating and learning of new grammatical forms and the acquiring of cultural competences about Croatian culture (Croatian literacy; real and virtual life; human rights and globalisation; libraries and reading; health; friendship, love relationships and family; education; money, jobs and saving; consumerism; movies and music; climate and environment; leisure). The cultural topics are an integral part of language lessons.
