Terms & Conditions of Being a Registered Student at Trinity

In order to complete the registration process, all students are required to agree to the terms and conditions as set out below annually. In doing so, you as a registered student, accept the following.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF STUDENT REGISTRATION 2018/19

Data Protection:

- The data collected during registration are being obtained by Trinity College Dublin, the University of Dublin, for the purposes of the provision of education and for related administrative and record-keeping purposes. All personal data collected will be held in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018.

- I have been informed that data are collected on the social, economic and cultural background of undergraduate students first entering the College this year, and that it is not mandatory to answer these particular questions and non-response will not affect me in any way.

- Selected data will be provided to relevant bodies where there is a statutory obligation and legal basis for Trinity College Dublin, the University of Dublin to do so, such as to the Department of Employment Affairs and Social Protection, Higher Education Authority (HEA) and Student Universal Support Ireland (SUSI). Information will be provided for statistical purposes to government or other bodies. Please note that your data will be shared with the HEA for funding allocation, statistical analysis and policy formulation purposes as required by the HEA Act 1971. The data shared include personal data such as name, address, Eircode, PPSN, grant status and CAO data. Full details of what data are shared and how these data are used are contained in the following link. Identifiable information will be provided to grant or sponsoring authorities regarding academic performance where this is relevant, and only where appropriate.

- Personal data collected from international students outside the EEA may be shared with the Department of Justice and Equality as required under section 8 of the Immigration Act 2003 in order to validate and progress visa applications.

- A sub-set of your personal data will be shared with College Services*, including the College Health Centre as one of the primary student support services on campus. The software used to manage this data is supported by a contracted third party who will on occasion have access to this data for technical support and maintenance purposes. Trinity College Dublin, the University of Dublin will not share your data with any other third parties without your express consent.

A full list of the College interfaced systems is available here:

- It may be necessary to disclose to parents or guardians claiming benefit in respect of their children (e.g., child benefit or child dependent allowance) the registration status of the student concerned, as required under section 238/1 of S.I. No. 142/2007 - Social Welfare (Consolidated Claims, Payments and Control) Regulations 2007.

- Student name, address, course(s) of study and other relevant College information will be retained indefinitely and may be made available to the Trinity Association and Trust, and Trinity Foundation where permitted. Personal data will be shared with Trinity Development & Alumni to carry out the statutory functions of the University under section 13 of the Universities Act 1997. Personal data shared with Trinity Development and Alumni will be processed in accordance with their privacy policy.

- Personal data will not be processed, other than as permitted by law. Those providing personal data have the right to access, rectification, erasure and data portability. Personal data will be processed by Trinity College Dublin, the University of Dublin, in accordance with the Data Protection Act, 2018.
