

BY PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Coming from Dublin City Centre: you can either take the Luas line (which leaves from the top of Grafton Street on Dublin's Southside of the City). Take the Luas to Milltown, as you leave the station turn right and immediately left up Temple Road, as you reach the top of Temple Road you will see a small turn to your right. This is the side entrance to Trinity Hall (white gates at the end - key access required). If the white gate is locked you will need to keep coming around the corner to the main entrance (otherwise you may be able to get in the white gates behind a resident as they enter). The short walk from the Luas through Dublin's exclusive residential districts of Dartry is less than 10 minutes.

Alternatively you can take the 140 bus. Most bus drivers know Trinity Hall at this stage. The nearest stop for the 140 is at Palmerstown Park – beside Trinity Hall. This is the Terminus for the 140.

Coming from the Airport: You can either take a taxi directly to Trinity Hall – our address is Dartry Road, Upper Rathmines. The approx cost of a taxi is €40.00.

There is no direct bus from the airport to Trinity Hall. On arrival at the airport there is a selection of buses available to take you in to the city (i.e. 747, 748), most of these leave from the left hand side of the doors on the arrivals level ramp, the journey can take between 30 and 60 minutes depending on the traffic, and the number of stops the bus has to make along the way. The frequency of buses is about every 15 minutes, cost approx €5.00 one way, ask the driver to let you off at O'Connell Street.

Alternatively you could take the privately owned 'AIRCOACH' bus directly to the City Centre. This bus departs from outside the carpark – you will need to walk through the carpark building which is in front of you as you exit through the arrival doors the costs is €7.00 one way or €12.00 return depart every 20 minutes and 10 at peak times. This bus stops less frequently. Ask the driver to let you off at O'Connell Street. The bus will stop outside the Gresham Hotel.

When you are on O'Connell St, you can catch the 140 bus which will drop you off right outside Trinity Hall. Stay on the same side of the road, but you will need to walk a few hundred meters towards the Spire on O'Connell Street, you should pass two bus stops before you reach the correct one, bus stop number 6059. When you see the bus approaching, you will need to stick out your hand to let the bus driver know that you want him to stop. Bus stop signs will also have the bus numbers printed on them so you can check if you are at the right stop. This journey will take 20 – 30 minutes depending on traffic and will cost €1.80. You will be getting off at the very last stop (Palmerstown Park). Cross the road and you will be on Dartry Road, Trinity Hall is located on the left hand side of the road, roughly 100 meters from the bus stop.

BY CAR

From the North (M1/N1) Follow the signs to exit Dublin airport, at the roundabout take the 2nd exit (signposted Dublin), to join the M1 motorway – this is the M1 R132 junction.

At the junction 3 on the M1 branch left (signposted M50 Southbound) at this roundabout take the 3rd exit. Continue along the M50 – you will then pass through the free flow toll bridge (€ payment due in arrears at selected stores!).

Continue to junction 11 (Tallaght) at this junction take the slip road left off the M50, following the signs for city centre/Dublin – you will then join the N81 dual carriage way. Continue straight until you come to a roundabout (the Spawell roundabout) go straight through this, keeping straight at the next set of lights through Templeogue village you will arrive at Terenure village, at the traffic lights stay in the right hand lane and go straight through the lights heading down Terenure Road East.

Keep going straight along this road until you come to Rathgar village, at the traffic lights stay in the right hand lane – once you have gone through the lights, there is a Church in front of you – take the fork to the right of the church – you are now on Highfield Road – keep driving down this road until you come to the traffic lights. At these take the right-hand turn and Trinity Hall is immediately on your left- drive straight through the gates to the glass reception area in front of you.

From Routes N2, N3, N4/M4, N7/M7 the easiest rout to Trinity Hall is onto the M50, following the directions as above.

From Route N81 you continue straight following the directions as from the Tallaght Junction.

From South (M11/N11) At Donnybrook at the end of the dual carriageway (RC Church on the right) turn second left past the Bus Station on the left, Eglinton Road; continue through the next traffic lights, Milltown Road and stay on this passing under the nine arch bridge, past the Dropping Well pub through two sets of traffic lights and Trinity Hall is the block on the right.
