Before proceeding to the next step of the application, please note the grounds on which you may seek special consideration are individual and must be extenuating. Extenuating circumstances mean that you may have a disability (Form A) or personal circumstances (Form B) and you should apply under one of the above only.

Incomplete applications at the time of review will not be considered. It is up to you to ensure the Accommodation Office is provided with the required documentation.

Please note all supporting documentation must be in English.

Applicants for accommodation in Trinity (this includes Trinity Hall, Campus and Kavanagh Court) on grounds of extenuating circumstances are advised to complete this form only.

- The student is experiencing difficult family circumstances /situations which affects their living arrangement and creates a need to live in campus accommodation.
- Poor living arrangements-e.g. homeless, need financial assistance from State, poor health and wellbeing in past year which significantly impacts on performance within college and identified need to live on campus.
